NEWS BY CABLE.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SPAIN.

MADRID, August 8.—Mr. Forbes, of Boston, had an interview with General Prim and Marshal Serrano, during which the proposed purchase of Cuba by the United States was brought up. Mr. Forbes was presented to the Regent and Secretary of war by the American Minister. The proposal was not accepted at present. Mr. Forbes, however, continues his negotiations.

Several priests have joined the Carlists bands. Three priests were arrested yesterday in Madrid.

MADRID, August 9.—via French cable—The recent decree issued by the Spanish Government in regard to the part taken by some of the English clergy in the Carlist conspiracy, calls on the Bishops to report what steps they have taken to restrain such action, and to furnish to the government the names of the conspirators. The Bishops are required to issue their pastorals, requiring obedience to law, within eight days.

MADRID, August 9—via English Cable.—The decree concerning the conduct of the clergy gives universal satisfaction. Up to the present moment the Bishops have maintained silence on the subject. A large number of circulars, issued by Don Carlos and addressed to bishops and clergy, inviting their co-operation, have been seized by the authorities.

Balanizitqua, a Carlist chieftain, has been captured, tried by court martial and shot.

A band of Carlists were attacked last week at Mortaliegiero. Nine of them were taken prisoners and shot on the spot by order of the officers commanding the Government troops. The act causes great sensation here.

Several parties of Carlists, led by priests, have been defeated and dispersed.

FRANCE.

PARIS, August 9.—via French Cable.—The Journal Official publishes the agreement of July 16th, made by the French cable company with the United States authorities, under which the landing of the cable at Duxbury was permitted.

Meredith Read, Jr., has received from the French Government his exequatur as Consul General of the United States at Paris.

In the Department of Lonia sixty-two miners, who took part in the late riots in St. Etienne and vicinity, have been tried, convicted and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment.

Reduction in Cable Rates.

LONDON, August 9.—The joint Committee of the Atlantic & Anglo-American company and the Directors of the New York, New Foundland & London Telegraph company have made a further reduction of tariff between any port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and New York, commencing Tuesday, August 10, 1869. Thirty shillings sterling, or seven dollars and a half gold, for ten words, and three shillings sterling or seventy-five cents, gold, for each extra word. Press messages one-half of the above rates.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Project of Annexation to United States—Expected Arrival of Prince Arthur.

[By telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HALIFAX, August 9.—There has been recently an interesting discussion among the party in the Province favorable to annexation to the United States, as to the best policy to be adopted to obtain the desired end. The party consists of two divisions, one of which advocates immediate annexation, and the other approves of a previous movement for independence as certain to lead to the desired end. No decisive policy has yet been adopted. The original annexationists complain bitterly of the policy of independence, as certain to lead to no desirable result. They are determined to stick to the banner of complete severance from Great Britain. The temporary policy of some of the repeal leaders does not meet with the approval of many of their political friends.

Prince Arthur is expected to arrive here in the steamer City of Paris on or about the 22d inst. It is probable, after remaining in this city a few days, he will proceed to Charlottstown, Prince Edward's Island, and afterwards to St. John, New Brunswick, thence to Fredricton and Quebec via St. John's river.

Preparations are being made for the reception of the Governor General, who is expected here shortly.

Escape of Prisoners.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BALTIMORE, August 9.—Four prisoners escaped from the city jail this afternoon, Hoffman and Dennis, Harnden express robbers, being among the number. Measures have been taken by the authorities for their recapture.

NEW YORK CITY.

Excitement in the Breadstuffs Market—Great Demand for Export—Conflict Between Federal and State Courts Amicably Adjusted.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 9, 1869.

Private cable telegrams from Europe to-day report bad weather and injury to the growing crops in Great Britain and France, and higher quotations in the English grain markets than reported by the press telegrams. This caused great animation on the Produce Exchange and stimulated a sharp upward movement in prices. Exporters appeared in force and took 250,000 bushels of wheat and 26,000 barrels of flour, at an advance of eight to ten cents per bushel on the former and twenty-five cents per barrel on the latter. The markets were swept of all the stuff offering within shippers' limits. This large movement in breadstuffs for export was felt in the different departments of speculation in Wall street. In the Gold Room the market fell to 135⅝, on the theory that produce shipments would make a large exchange and stop the specie shipments.

Application has been made to Judge McCunn for an injunction against the Highland Suspension Bridge and New England and Erie Railroad's appointment of a receiver. After some discussion the matter was adjourned till to-morrow.

The case of Jno. H. Pratt, the Texan rioter, was before both Federal and State Courts to-day. Commissioner Osborne at first refused to give him up to the State Court, in answer to the habeas corpus issued by Judge McCunn, whereupon the latter said he should direct the Sheriff to enforce the writ and called upon the State military for aid. Finally, after an interview between District Attorney Pierrepont and the Judge, Pratt was produced in the State Court, whereupon Mr. Pierrepont stated the circumstances of the case, and asked that the prisoner be remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal. This was objected to by his counsel, on the ground that the Federal authorities had no jurisdiction, but the Judge granted the request of the District Attorney, and the case comes up before Judge Osborne on Thursday.

A writ of habeas corpus was issued by Judge McCunn, directing Superintendent Kennedy to produce the bodies of Harwood and Hatcher, the English forgers, and show cause for their detention. As the forgers sailed on Saturday, they cannot be produced in court.

The steamer City of Antwerp, from Liverpool, has arrived.

ALBANY.

The Susquehanna Railroad War—The Ramsey Interest in Possession.—Seizure of Railroad Property at Binghamton.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALBANY, Aug. 9.—Testimony was taken and arguments heard before Judge Peckham, this morning, in the matter of the contesting receivers for the Susquehanna Railroad, and the Judge has decided that Hon. R. H. Pruyn is the legally appointed receiver and James Fiske, Jr., is not. This gives the Ramsay interest full possession of the road and they are now in charge.

ALBANY, Aug. 9.—The report sent this morning that Judge Peckham had decided that Mr. Pruyn was legally appointed receiver of the Albany and Susquehanna Railroad was incorrect. The question has been referred to Surrogate Lawton, who will take testimony in the matter and report on Thursday.

Judge Peckham this morning issued the injunction requiring Fiske to show cause, August 13th, why he should not be enjoined and restrained from taking any further steps in acting or attempting to act as receiver. In the meantime Pruyn holds his position as receiver and the Ramsey interest has possession of the road.

BINGHAMTON, August 9.—This afternoon at two o'clock Sheriff Brown seized the office and what rolling stock of the Albany and Susquehanna Railroad he could get possession of, on authority of a writ of Judge Barnard of New York. Mr. Van Pyle, of this city, has been placed in possession of the business and telegraph office. Three engines were seized by the Sheriff and one escaped, and is probably now making good time for Albany. An engine from the Erie Railroad was placed on the 2:30 passenger train, but was not allowed to leave the track at the depot. The train started, however, at five o'clock, drawn by an Erie engine and in charge of an Erie conductor. Superintendent Pratt, of the Erie Railroad, has been appointed Superintendent of the Albany and Susquehanna Railroad by James Fisk, Jr., as receiver.

FIRES.

Corn Mill at Louisville Destroyed—Alleged Incendiarism.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, August 9.—A fire last night totally destroyed the corn mill of F. Bauman, on First street between Main and Market, and damaged the adjoining buildings and contents to some extent. Loss $85,000; fully insured in local and eastern companies. While the fire was progressing the cigar store of Adolphus Harris, at the corner of Market and First streets, was observed to be on fire. It was, however, soon subdued. Harris, the proprietor, was afterwards arrested on a charge of arson and committed.

Incendiarism at Cairo.

CAIRO, August 9.—A fire last night nearly consumed the American House, an unoccupied hotel in this city. Loss $8,000; insurance $5,500, in Cincinnati companies. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

The Eclipse—A Striking Feature.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

VINCENNES, IND., August 9.—One of the most striking features of the eclipse here was the appearance on the lower right hand rim of the moon's surface, and extending downward, of a red spot as large as a man's fist, which did not look like a flame, but more like a solid red hot body, like melted iron. This was distinctly seen with the naked eye during the entire observation. This did not form any part of the corona, which was very brilliant and seemed almost to entirely encircle the moon in a halo of glory.

Eclipse Observations—Arrival of Mexican Officials—Counterfeit Coupons—The Test Oath in Virginia—Execution of Americans in Cuba—Increase in the Revenue.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 9, 1869.

ECLIPSE OBSERVATIONS.

Commodore Sands, who has charge of the Naval Observatory, has submitted the following report to the Secretary of the Navy:

U. S. Naval Observatory, Washington, D. C., August 9, 1869.—Sir: I have the honor to report that I have received a telegraphic dispatch from our observers of the eclipse at Des Moines, Iowa. Prof. Harkness reports as follows:

We have succeeded beyond our most sanguine expectations. We have one hundred and twenty-three photographs of the eclipse, two being of totality; also a spectro of five prominences, no two of them giving the same lines. Could see no absorption lines in the spectrum of the Corona; it gave a continuous spectrum, with one bright line on it.

Prof. Eastman's observations were also successful. He reports no ultra mercurial planets were visible.

T. W. Heyward left here on Friday morning and arrived at Bristol, Tenn., in ample time for the eclipse. His special objects of attention were duration of totality and ultra mercurial planets. The circumstances attending his observations were extremely favorable. Mercury, Venus and Regulus were visible to the naked eye, but no ultra mercurial planets were seen. He has numerous notes of the eclipse, from which a full report will be made.

At this Observatory the sun was partially obscured by clouds, and owing to the use of a higher power than the observer was accustomed to, he failed to get a first and last contact. His other observations were entirely successful.

I will have the honor to submit a more detailed report on the return of the officers sent out from here.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant. P. T. SANDS, Commodore.

To HON. G. M. ROBESON, Secretary of the Navy.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

Representative Clark, of Kansas, Chairman of the Committee on Indian Affairs, has arrived in this city after an extensive tour among the Indian tribes in southern Kansas. Mr. Clark will have an interview with Commissioner Parker to-morrow, when he will present the actual condition of the Indians in that section of the country, and also suggest that measures be taken for the removal of the Osages further south, that being in his opinion a great matter of interest to the Indians and the Government, as well as to the white settlers, over two thousand of whom are congregated on the Osage reservation. Mr. Clark states that the recent reports of disturbances on the neutral lands of Kansas have been greatly exaggerated, and that the people there are perfectly willing to submit to the legal adjudication of the title of the lands occupied by them.

THE TEST OATH IN VIRGINIA.

An order issued by General Canby, at Richmond, August 3d, revokes the previous order of General Stoneman, exempting from taking the test oath Commissioners in Chancery and removes all such officers who cannot take the oath. The order is regarded as an assurance that unless prevented by the interposition of higher authority, he will enforce the requirement of the test oath on the recently elected members of legislature.

EXECUTION OF AMERICANS IN CUBA.

There seems to be no doubt that important dispatches have been received here from Admiral Hoff, detailing the circumstances of the execution of American citizens at Santiago de Cuba, and the results of his investigations on that subject, which have been withheld for the present from publication. They will be laid before the Cabinet to-morrow.

MEXICAN OFFICIALS.

Senor Marcal, the new Mexican Minister, arrived to day. He visited the State Department and left his credentials. It is probable he will be received by the President to-morrow. Sr. Palacio, Commissioner under the Claims Convention, also arrived this morning. Arrangements have been made for an early meeting of the board.

INCREASED REVENUE.

The receipts from internal revenue continue very satisfactory, and on an average are much higher than the returns exhibited at this period last year. For some time past they have averaged at least $600,000, and to-day were within a fraction of a million dollars.

COUNTERFEIT COUPONS.

Three dollar coupons of 1881, paid by the Assistant Treasurer at New York and received by Gen. Spinner, are pronounced counterfeit. They are lithographed and badly executed.

RETURNED.

Postmaster General Cresswell has returned to Washington.

CINCINNATI.

Three Boys Drowned—Free Trade Posters.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, August 9.—Three boys, Geo. Carr, John Clark and Wm. Lohman, were drowned in Ohio river yesterday evening, by the capsizing of a skiff. Three of their companions escaped.

Henry B. Lloyd, agent of the American Free Trade League, arrived yesterday from New York, has posters up in all quarters of the city.

Two Boys Roasted to Death.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 9.—On Friday night two boys named Mahoney and Caffrey, both aged twelve years, were roasted to death while sleeping in an ash pit on the Central railroad, near Elizabethport, N. J. They belonged to Elizabeth, and being away from home, went to the pit to sleep, and the fires of the locomotive which were hauled into the pit literally roasted them to death.

CHICAGO.

Saw Mill Burned—Chinese Visitors—Army Promotions—The Turners' Festival.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, August 9.—The steam saw mill owned by Robert S. Calkins & Hull, at Muskegan, Mich., was completely destroyed by fire last evening. The loss is from $50,000 to $60,000; insured for $28,000.

The Chinese visitors paid a visit to the Elgin Watch Factory, located some forty miles west of this city, to-day. They leave for New York to-night.

A special order from Lieut. General Sheridan's headquarters announces the following promotions: 1st Lt. R. P. Wilson, Company E, 5th cavalry, to be Captain, vice Denny, which carries him to Company A; 1st Lt. A. B. Taylor, Regimental Quartermaster, to be Captain, vice Arnold, which carries him to Company L; 2d Lt. C. T. Hall, Company B, 2d cavalry, to be 1st Lt., vice Taylor, which carries him to Company I; 2d Lt. W. P. Clark, Company A, 2d cavalry, to be 1st Lt., vice Norton, which carries him to Company G.

The Turners had another delightful day for their festival. At eight o'clock this forenoon the procession was formed at headquarters, and soon after it moved to Wright's Grove. The procession was an attractive one, comprising not less than two thousand Turners, with near a dozen bands of music. At twelve o'clock a complimentary dinner was given to the gentlemen of the Press at the Cafe Del Europe. In the afternoon the competition for prizes took place. The attendance was very large, and everything passed off pleasantly.

CUBA.

Release of an American Prisoner—Los Tunas Relieved—The Insurgents Surprised.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, August 9.—Gen. Lespes arrived here last week in bad health and has gone to San Domingo for baths.

Mr. Valtz, a relative of one of the United States Consuls in Cuba, who was recently arrested and sentenced to four months' imprisonment, has been released at the instigation of Consul General Plumb, and sailed for New York in the steamer Columbia.

The official reports state that there are now few rebels in the jurisdiction of Los Eugenas and Holquin. A convoy of provisions had reached the town of Los Tunas and relieved the garrison, who were suffering from scarcity. The troops recently surprised a body of insurgents at Des Eugenas and killed forty of their number.

NASHVILLE.

High Handed Outrage on a Citizen.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NASHVILLE, July 9.—Last night a party of young men went to City Hotel and called for Joseph L. Barbour of Hartford, Conn., in the name of Mr. Stone, late candidate for Senator on the Stokes' ticket. When Mr. Barbour appeared in the office they took him out and carried him toward the suspension bridge. Barbour seized hold of a lamp post, and whilst some were trying to pull him away others struck him over the shoulders with their canes. Here gentlemen came up and interfered in his behalf and he returned to the hotel. Barbour traveled with Stokes during the latter part of the canvass and corresponded with the State Journal. He was considerably bruised, but not seriously hurt. The outrage was without cause and is condemned by all classes of citizens.

BOSTON.

Death of a Publisher—The Mrs. Hobbs Murder—Enforcing Prohibition.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, August 7.—Chas. C. Little, founder, and senior partner of the firm of Little, Brown & Co., well known law publishers, died this morning in his 71st year.

The Coroner's jury in the case of the death of Mrs. Hobbs returned a verdict that she came to her death by being shot through her body by a pistol in the hands of Thomas L. White.

On Saturday one hundred and twenty-eight gallons of ale and six gallons of whisky were seized in the brewery of Joseph Shaw, in Salem, by the State Constables, under the liquor law.

From Central America.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 8.—The steamer Henry Chauncey arrived from Aspinwall July 31st.

Senor Montelegre, Minister appointed from Nicaragua to Costa Rica to arrange the terms for the excavation of an interoceanic railroad across Nicaragua, had returned entirely successful in his mission.

The Panama Star says instructions have been received from the Navy Department at Washington by Commander Trulton to prepare the sloop-of-war Jamestown for a trip to Fegee Islands, to investigate the cause of the late missionary murder there. The Jamestown would sail early in August.

The schooner Petrel was to carry another treasure seeking party from Panama to the Island of Cocoa, including, it was believed, some agents of the Costa Rica Government, who go to take formal possession of the Island in the name of the Republic, which has always laid claim to its ownership, but never yet planted a flag on it.

Small bands of rebels in Nicaragua had been defeated and it was expected the rebellion would soon be quelled.

The Ecuadorian National Convention on July 10th declared the Republic in a state of war and invested the Executive with power to prevent the threatened piratical invasion. The General-in-Chief, Garcia Moreno, had been called into active service and the powers conferred on the Executive transferred to him.

At seven o'clock P. M. on the 21st of July a sharp shock of an earthquake was felt in Guayaquil, which extended to Quito at 9 P. M., and reached Callao at midnight, creating a good deal of alarm, but causing no damage. On the 23d and 24th a shower of ashes fell over Guayaquil, supposed to have proceeded from an old volcano, on the side of which mountain Quito is situated. Both Pichinlehi and Cotapaxi are in active operation.

The shock of an earthquake was also felt at Iquique July 13th, and the volcano of Isluga is in constant action.

BALLOON EXCURSION.

Professor Thurston Leaves Meadville for New York in His Balloon, the "Bridal Chariot."

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEADVILLE, PA., August 9.—S. S. Thurston, accompanied by Messrs. Oliphant and Baldwin, started in the balloon, "Bridal Chariot," for New York city, at 4:35 P. M. They expect to make their destination in thirty-six hours. The wind is now favorable for the trip.

ST. LOUIS.

Gang of Murderers—Search for Hildebrand, the Missouri Desperado.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, August 9.—Recent events have disclosed the fact that a gang of murderers have for a long time made their rendezvous at Canton, in this State, and that a number of the citizens of that place have been murdered. Several arrests have been made and writs issued for other parties, but in the attempt to serve them the sheriff and his posse were met with organized resistance and after a desperate fight they were forced to retire with two men killed and several wounded.

The Police Commissioners to-day received a dispatch from Irondale, Mo., that Colonel Bowen, in command of a force sent to capture Hildebrand, the desperado of Southeast Missouri, and Sheriff Murphy, of St. Francis county, were fired upon by Hildebrand and some of his friends, and Bowen wounded and his horse shot from under him. The posse are now in pursuit. The attack on the officers of the law may result in the sending of a strong force of militia to Washington and St. Francis counties, and the driving out of the whole gang of outlaws.

CANADA.

Silver Exportation Movement—The Exodus from the Provinces—Fires.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MONTREAL, August 9.—Mr. Wier is reorganizing the silver exportation movement and is well supported by former subscribers. The action so far has had a decided effect on silver, which has fallen from four to three per cent. He proposes to export $1,500,000 to complete his contract.

The workmen at St. Roche, Quebec, are agitating a public meeting to consider the best means for stopping the present exodus of French Canadians to the United States.

GUELPH, Aug. 7.—McClean's oat meal mill, at Obenferile, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss was $20,000.

PORT HOPE, August 9.—The brick block on John street, in which was situated the Cairo Hotel and several other buildings, was destroyed by fire last night. Loss $20,000.

THE TURF.

Great Trot at Saratoga.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

SARATOGA, August 9.—Lady Thorn arrived here this morning and will trot on Friday against Mountain Boy.

Buffalo Driving Park Meeting.

BUFFALO, August 9.—The trotting to-morrow over the Buffalo Driving Park was the all absorbing topic in the city to-day. A large crowd was in attendance at the pool-selling and sales were large and brisk. Nora Wood is the favorite in the three mile race, going against two to one with the field. Anthony Wayne is backed strongest in the 2:30 race. Five horses are entered for the three minute trot and nine in the 2:34 trot. The weather is clear and the track in splendid condition. Every railway train brings in crowds of visitors.

MEMPHIS.

Balloon Accident—Fortunate Escape.

MEMPHIS, August 9.—While two gentlemen and two ladies were making an ascension in a balloon this morning, a sudden gust of wind drove the balloon against a bell tower on the Adams street engine house. One man jumped out upon the roof of the building and the balloon being relieved of his weight shot up some one hundred and fifty feet above the building, when the man pulled the lucing string, splitting the balloon wide open, but it was filled by the breeze and sunk gradually until near the top of the engine house, when it suddenly collapsed and fell, but fortunately caught upon a chimney breaking the fall, and the crowd rushing under the car prevented its striking, and all escaped.

Horsewhipped for His Treachery.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CLIFTON HOUSE, NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., August 9.—Jas. H. Day, formerly private secretary to General Ryan, arrived here last Friday with letters purporting to come from the Cuban Junta in New York, asking the General to return to New York immediately with Day. Ryan, suspecting the letters were forgeries, accused Day of treachery, which he was finally compelled to admit, whereupon Ryan gave him a severe and unmerciful horsewhipping. Day on his knees begged for mercy, but none was shown him, until the guests rushed in and took the whip from Ryan. The affair created great excitement.

—A story is current in Washington that at the time Sickles was being discussed in the Cabinet previous to his appointment, Attorney General Hoar and Secretary Fish suggested that the General's complicity with the Ostend Manifesto might seriously interfere with his usefulness at the Spanish Court. Secretary Rawlings and Postmaster General Creswell, in reply to the objection, remarked that at the time they were in favor of the Manifesto. After a brief silence, the President solved the question of the appointment, by saying that he, too, was in favor of the Manifesto at the time it was issued.

—The dead body of Mowry Irons, who murdered his wife in June last at Burrillsville, Rhode Island, was found on Saturday in a swamp near the scene of the murder. He had evidently killed himself soon after killing his wife.

Petroleum Items.

The Titusville Herald furnishes the following fresh oil items:

The Williard well on the Benedict Estate Company's tract, Enterprise, was torpedoed last week, and the product was greatly increased.

A new well was struck last Thursday at Fowler's, on the Allegheny river, about two miles north of Parker's Landing. The production is rated at ten to twenty barrels daily.

Last week a new well was struck on the Chambers' tract of the Baney farm, Cherrytree run. It is owned by Messrs. Adams and Macintosh, and is yielding forty to fifty barrels a day. This well is located in the immediate vicinity of other large producing wells.

At Parker's Landing, Allegheny river, five new wells were recently struck, which increased the product one hundred barrels.

On Friday last, Mr. E. M. Hukill and others sold to J. P. Gage and others the working interest in two wells—producing ten barrels daily—on the Union Oil Company's tract, Cherrytree run, for $5,000. The working interest in these wells has three-fourths of the oil.

A few days ago a new six barrel well was struck on the north side of the Allegheny river at Scrubgrass.

Last week Mr. F. W. Andrews struck a new fifteen barrel well on the Allegheny river a short distance north of Rockwood station.

After the Race.

Wm. Franey proprietor of the Coal Valley Hotel, near Haberman's coal tipple, on the Monongahela river, made information before Alderman McMasters, yesterday against Charles Griese, John Drystott, Peter Drystott, and Peter Eysbert, for riot and felonious assault. The accused are all coal miners, and employed in the pits in the vicinity. It is alleged that shortly after the boat race on Saturday evening they went to the hotel and asked for liquor. Some one in the bar-room stated to Franey that one of the parties was a minor, whereupon Mr. Franey refused to accede to their demands. They, it is alleged, become angry at his refusal, and after going outside commenced an attack on the house, braking the window, bursting in the doors, smashing the furniture inside, firing off pistols and creating a row generally. After all was over, it is said the house was found to be damaged to the extent of seven hundred or one thousand dollars. Warrants were issued but when the officers went in search of the accused they had hid in the pits, and could not be secured. They will likely be arrested to-day when a hearing will take place.

A BLIND MAN'S FIRESIDE.

Talk to me, oh ye eloquent flames,
Gossips and comrades fine!
Nobody knows me, poor and blind,
That sit in your merry shine.
Nobody knows me but my dog:
A friend I've never seen,
But that comes to my call, and loves me
For the sympathies between.

'Tis pleasant to bear in the cold, dark night,
Mounting higher and higher,
The crackling, chattering, sputtering, spattering
Flames in the Wintry fire.
Half asleep in the corner,
I hear you prattle and snap,
And talk to me and Tiny
That dozes in my lap.

You laugh with the merriest laughter;
You dance, you jest, you sing,
And suggest in the wintry midnight
The joys of the coming Spring.
Not even the lark on the fringe of the cloud,
Nor the thrush on the hawthorn bough,
Singeth a song more pleasant to hear
Than the song you're singing now.

Your voices are of gladness;
Ever they seem to say,
After the evening—morning!
After the night—the day!
After this mortal blindness,
A heavenly vision clear,
The soul can see when the eyes are dark;
Awake! let the light appear!

PENNSYLVANIA.

DAN RICE is building a $20,000 barn in Girard.

THE Blair County Agricultural Fair is to be held in Hollidaysburg on the 28th, 29th and 30th proximo.

EBENSBURG is to have telegraphic communication with outside barbarism and talks of celebrating the event publicly.

THERE are said to be eighty-one candidates for nominations at the forthcoming Republican Convention in Lancaster county.

BEAVER Methodists want to build a church on the public square, and the Argus says the people object and threaten to prosecute.

THE Johnstown Tribune says: "The yield is above the average in this part of the State, and the growing corn and oats crops are looking well."

THE Roman Catholic parsonage at Ebensburg is to be raffled off at $2 a chance, the drawing to take place during the first week of the next Court.

A ROUTE has been decided on for the proposed railroad from Freeport to Butler. Several were proposed and the one chosen is known as the the "Little Buffalo Route."

A LITTLE girl, named Powell, living in Cambria township, Cambria county, had her foot and ankle cut completely off by a mowing machine, which her father was managing at the time.

A FEW days ago Mr. William Byerly, of this place, killed a monster black snake, eleven feet six inches long. It was quietly located in the cellar just dug for Mr. Welch's new house in Riverside. —Danville American.

A MAN named Samuel Dundore was attacked by a couple of highway robbers near East Buffaloe, Union county, last week. They requested his money or his life, and he decided to let them have the money, which amounted to $205.

MR. NICHOLAS RIFFLEY, of Middlesex township, was killed on the 8th of July, by a large barn door falling upon him, which he was endeavoring to put in proper working order for his neighbor, Mr. Philip Miller.—Butler Independent.

THE Northwestern Independent is a neat little paper, just started in Butler, with the motto "Independent, Fearless and Free," and with both the Republican and Democratic platforms in its columns. It claims to start with a circulation of 1,500.

ON Friday three buildings in Clarksville, Mercer county, occupied as dwelling houses, were destroyed by fire. Two of them were owned by Hon. M. B. Lowry, of Erie, and the third by a Mr. Fruit. The loss amounted to about $3,000 and there was no insurance.

ON Monday night last the large store house of A. M. Stewart & Co. and Wm. B. Marshall, in Indiana, was entered by burglars and the large fire proof safe blown open and robbed of $1,300 in money and Government bonds. The same gang then proceeded to the store room of J. M. Guthrie, which they also entered, and the safe of which they also blew open, but obtained but little for their trouble.

THE Greensburg Democrat says: On Monday of last week, Mr. William Sell, near New Stanton, while assisting to unload hay off a wagon, by means of a patent hay fork, the hook that held the tackle to the rafters gave way, and the pulley in falling struck him on the head, injuring him so severely that he survived only until the Thursday morning following. Mr. Sell was aged forty years, and was unmarried.

THE remains of an unknown man, supposed to have been drowned, were found on the 31st ult., among a pile of drift wood lodged on an island in the Susquehanna river, about a mile above Safe Harbor. The body was in such a state of decomposition that the head and one foot had dropped off and were gone. An inquest was held by A. R. Witmer, Esq., Deputy Coroner, and a verdict rendered that the deceased came to his death by drowning, or some other cause unknown to the jury.—Intelligencer.

MISS BARBARA GRETH, 93 years of age, who resided with her nephew, Richard Hoffmaster, at 517 Binghampton street, fell out of the second story window of the premises about nine o'clock on Saturday evening last, sustaining such severe injuries that she died within about an hour after the accident. The height from which she fell was about twelve feet, and it would appear from a severe gash that was cut in her forehead that she struck her head upon the brick pavement. She was also somewhat bruised about the body.—Reading Times.

What an Eclipse Might Be.

A correspondent of the Boston Post says: "Few people trouble themselves to think what the effect would be if the eclipse of Saturday were to last any length of time, and the sun were blotted from the heavens. Philosophy declares that not only would a horror of darkness cover the earth, but the moisture of the atmosphere would be precipitated in vast showers to the earth, and the temperature fall to a fearful point of cold, nothing less than 230 degrees below zero. Fahrenheit. The earth would be the seat of darkness, and more than arctic desolation. Nothing could survive such freezing cold a moment, more than one could breathe in scalding water. In three days after the cooling process began, nothing created would be alive but monsters that wallow in the deep ocean and the eyeless reptiles that make their haunts in caves which penetrate far under ground.

OHIO.

THE new opera house at Akron was opened on the 26th ult.

SAMUEL PORTER died at Cadiz on the first of August, aged 109 years.

THE Bucyrus machine company has failed and will probably go into bankruptcy.

RAVENNA had a Spiritualists' picnic the other day, at which four or five hundred people were present.

DR. ROSSITER, an aged lunatic, formerly of Miami county, hung himself in the Dayton Asylum a few days since.

THE ALLEGHENY quartette club, when it sang in Canton had, according to the Repository "a small and exceedingly select audience."

A CHILD of Gustavus Delaney of Blanchard Township, Hancock Co., eighteen months old was drowned in a cistern on the 26th ult.

A MR. JACOB SEACRIST made his first balloon ascension the other day. He went up alone from Wooster, and came down safely about twenty-five miles to the north-west of that place.

THE Belmont Chronicle says: "The grasshoppers are destroying the oats crop in some parts of this county. They eat off the small stem that holds the grain to the straw, leaving the field without anything but standing straw."

A SECRET confederacy of thieves, bound together by horrid oaths of mutual concealment, co-operation and protection from legal interference, has been discovered in Fostoria and its vicinity. A newly-received member of the gang exposed their doings.

THE Ashtabula Sentinel says: "The wheat crop in this county, while it is much greater than for many years, and is very heavy, has been pretty generally got in without loss. The crop of oats is unusually fine and is now pretty generally ready for cutting."

YOUNG Joachim Hagglestein of Salem Township, Ottowa County, formerly of Mecklenburg, Germany, being jilted by the girl of his heart, whom he had brought from fatherland expressly for matrimonial purposes, drowned himself in Portage river on the 34th ult.

A FEROCIOUS sow, near Newark, a few evenings ago, seized a child named Smootz, stripped its clothing off, broke one of its arms in three places, severely cut its face and head, and was only prevented from killing it by the interposition of a young woman who was near at hand and came to its rescue.

A YOUNG German from near Summerford, Madison county, was thrown from his wagon on East Main street last Saturday afternoon, about five o'clock, and shockingly bruised and cut, one of his ears being torn off and an arm broken. He was kindly cared for and taken home, where he died last Tuesday morning. He was unable to give his name intelligibly. —Springfield Republic.

MR. ALONZO ELLIS, of the "Croton House," five miles west of this city, has a pig now about four weeks old, which he procured from a man near Doylestown, that has but two legs—the hind legs natural to the hog kind being entirely absent. The rest of the litter being perfect animals, though not more lively and wide-awake than the two-legged in question, Mr. Ellis reporting that he takes regular and full rations, and poising himself on the two legs with which he is provided, gets over the ground about as fast as grunters of his age generally do.—Akron Beacon.

The Petroleum Trade.

At Pen Horn, on the New York and Erie Railroad, about four miles from Jersey city, is an extensive depot for storing petroleum in bulk. A large quantity of the coal oil is received here, as much as 120 cars sometimes arriving in a day, having been brought directly from the Pennsylvania wells. Each of the oil cars has two fixed tubes or tanks, each tank holding 40 barrels. On arriving at the depot the oil is removed from the car to a receiving tank placed at the side of the track. This is most effectively done by an application of the syphon principle. One end of a great iron syphon is placed in the car tank, and the other end is put into a bucket of oil in the receiving tank. The air is then exhausted from the syphon by a syringe, and the pressure upon the surface of the oil in the car-tank continues to force it rapidly through the syphon into the overflowing bucket, until it has all passed from the car-tank into the receiver. Four thousand gallons of oil, it is asserted, may be emptied from one tank to the other in this way in less than five minutes' time. From the receiver-tank the oil is pumped by steam into huge round iron reservoirs, capable of holding 20,000 barrels each. These reservoirs are made of the best boiler iron, and are tarred and sanded upon the top, to shed the water. In these receptacles the oil remains until it is required for shipment, when it is forced by a steam pump, driven by an engine of forty-horse power, through a line of iron pipes, seven miles long, to Weehawken, on the Hudson, where it is again pumped from the reservoir into elevated tanks upon the wharves.

Gettysburg Twice a Battle-Field.

An archæological investigation of the country around Gettysburg, conducted by a learned antiquarian, has proved the truth of a belief long entertained by residents, that the battle-field of Gettysburg had, in the distant past, been the scene of a bloody struggle between the Indians, or of some unknown and extinct race. This fact is attested by the exhumation of the military instruments of the combatants and the remains of the dead in what is known as the Indian Field, about a mile southwest of Round Top and of the National Cemetery. These relics are found thickly imbedded in the soil over the whole area of territory which was the scene of the rebel defeat of 1863. They consist of stone arrow-heads, battle axes, war clubs, shields, &c. Some of them have been disinterred from their tombs of centuries and placed on exhibition in the College.

FOR twenty years past there has existed a spring of wonderful medicinal virtue on the line of the Northern Central Railway, a little less than two miles north from the borough of Canton, Bradford county, Pa. A new railway station has been established there, and the name of an old Indian chief, Monequa, given to it. Ever since the discovery of the spring it has had little more than a local reputation, though the cures of rheumatism, eresypelas, scrofula and various diseases of the skin and kidneys its waters have effected are numerous and remarkable.

Washington Items.

A prominent English gentleman who has arrived here reports that it is surely the purpose of the British Cabinet to accord belligerent rights to the Cubans, and that very soon, following her own precedent in the case of the Southern States.

Urgent calls are received at the Treasury for small currency, from New York, Philadelphia, Albany and elsewhere, but there is very little in the Treasury, there being only $6000 in 50-cent notes. A small lot in Pittsburgh has been telegraphed for.

Reports from the Indian country are all favorable for peace, and Commissioner Parker sees no reason to fear a disturbance anywhere this fall. The policy of collecting the Indians in reservations is going forward, and unexpectedly large numbers of persons are coming, and showing a disposition to adopt the habits of civilized life. The system of distributing annuity goods at large towns, which led to lawlessness, and ended in a transfer of most of the goods to white traders and sharpers at nominal prices, has been broken up and distributions are now generally made on the reservations, access to which is denied to traders. This plan is found to work a great deal better than the old one.

The published account of the Associated Press describing the riot at Mobile, bears marks of partisan prejudice on its face. The riot was premeditated by the Rebels. The mob were prepared for murder, as will be shown when the unprejudical reports are received.

It is understood that the National Convention of Liquor Dealers will urge Congress to repeal the present tax on whiskey and re-enact the old law, requiring a tax of two dollars per gallon.

Judge Dent to-day was delighted with the news from Tennessee, as he considered it the forerunner of a similar result in Mississippi. He called in to see Judge Richardson, Acting Secretary of the Treasury, and assured Mr. Richardson that he was as good a Republican as there was in the country.

A prominent Tennessee politician now here received a telegram from Nashville to-day, which states that the prospects of Andrew Johnston for the election to the United State Senate are now considered almost certain, as the majority of the Conservative members of the Legislature elect are already pledged to him. His only opponent of any strength will be Col. Bailie Peyton, but efforts are making to induce the latter to withdraw from the contest. The dispatch adds that the Radicals are divided in opinion regarding their candidate, with a strong probability that Stokes will be their final choice. Other advices state that Republicans who supported Sentor for Governor will bolt the Conservative ticket if Johnson is nominated, and assert that his strength is mainly confined to the Old Line Democrats.

A new system of defrauding the revenue has been discovered in practice all over the country. The stamps used are pasted on with rye meal paste, or other ingredient which does not adhere too strongly, to allow the stamp to be taken off without tearing. In this way the same stamp has been used to cover several barrels of spirits, and the same rule is applied to tobacco and segar boxes. The perpetrators of these frauds are in every instance United States revenue officials.

What Five Months Have Done.

Let us enumerate some of the results of the brief five months of President Grant's administration, which may be cited to the public in response to the charge that the public service is neglected.

We were told in October last by the same oracles that now find it so difficult, in speaking of the President, to respect the ordinary proprieties of social life, that there would be a deficiency in our revenues for the fiscal year just closed of one hundred and fifty-four millions of dollars. That is what they regarded as the best prospect the future had to offer us financially nine months ago.

Now, what has this idle, cigar-smoking, horse-jockey of a President accomplished during the brief five months that he has had such control of the Government as Congress accorded to him?

By a greater care in the selection of trustworthy agents, and by a vigorous enforcement of the law, the revenues have so rapidly increased that the direct debt of the government has already, since his inauguration, been reduced between forty-three and forty-four millions of dollars. The revenues from whisky and tobacco alone have more than doubled. A reduction of the army from forty regiments to twenty-five is to result in a further saving of many millions.

The effects of the new policy of the government toward the Indians cannot now be appreciated, but enough is already known to make a further economy in that direction that must be estimated by millions. Our Federal securities are worth to-day at least $250,000,000 more than they were worth the day our President was inaugurated, and are advancing at the rate of ten or fifteen millions a week. There is no doubt of our ability to fund the entire national debt within a year at a rate of interest not exceeding four and a half per cent. We are sure of a surplus at the end of the current fiscal year of from $125,000,000 to $150,000,000, and it is no longer a question that our revenues will justify a large reduction of our taxes. —New York Times.

LAST Saturday, as a train came around a curve to a high trestle west of Big Run, near Marietta, a woman was suddenly discovered walking on the track, and she as suddenly saw the train, and, seeing her imminent danger, dropped between the ties, holding herself suspended by her arms around a tie, till it passed over her. The train was checked till she was seen to climb up again safely. She looked like a woman a little past middle age, and did'nt scream, but went to work to save herself in a thorough business-like manner.

AT the iron furnace of Mr. J. P. Burton, at Massillon, a piece of limestone was recently found, in the center of which was imbedded a round white mineral substance resembling feldspar, about the size of a nickel, and in the center of this, set like mosaic work, was, to appearance, a sprig of four-leaved clover about a quarter grown, each leaf and the stem perfect and distinct.

IT is not generally known that wool-growing in South America has grown into such mammoth proportions as it really has. Even the Australian breeders have cause for alarm from this competition. It is reported on good authority that the number of sheep shorn there annually exceed 70,000,000. The exports of wool to Europe and the United States amounts to 230,000,000.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P.M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, August 9, 1869.

CATTLE.

There was again a fair supply of Cattle on sale to-day, 750 head, against 800 last week, and mainly of the lower grades, and good cattle were scarce and sold readily at full prices. Of the cattle on sale, 10 cars were from Chicago; 3 from Cincinnati; 1 from Fort Wayne; 2 from Bellfontaine; 1 from Loudenville; 2 from Mansfield; 5 from Indianapolis; and 2 from Caledonia. In addition, there were 142 head State Cattle on sale as follows; 60 head from Butler; 42 from Washington and 40 from Green Counties.

The market, compared with last week, presents but little that is really new or important. The demand was a little better, and in the presence of several eastern buyers, butchers bought with less hesitation, and did not hang, as was the case last week, when they had it pretty much all to themselves. As already intimated, however, prices were no higher, though prime fat steers sold quick, and that, too, at quotations of last week, 7½@7¾, and a few fancy at 8. There is an improved demand for stock steers, and we can report sales at from 4 @5¼, as to quality and condition.

Among other eastern buyers in attendance, we noticed Briggs, Gillett, Dufley and Simon Moses, and it is probable that quite a number of good shipping cattle could have been sold, if they had have been offered.

Sheltemantle & Flinner 21 head Butler Co. cows heifers and steers, at 4@5¾.

J. C. McNeese sold 7 head Butler Co. steers and heifers, at 4 cts.

E. Katz & Bro. 18 head Chicago steers, at 6¼@7¼; 14 head Washington Co. steers and heifers, at 4½@6.

Kauffman 10 head Washington Co.

Garwin & Co. 20 head Butler Co. mixed stock, at 3½@5¼.

Haas & Kraus 41 head Ohio steers, at 6@7¾.

Jacob Needy 35 head Ohio steers, at 6½@8.

M. Verner 21 Ohio steers, at 5@6¼; 18 Washington Co. stock, at 5@6¾.

Peter Hartman 40 Green Co. steers and cows, at 4¼@7.55.

L. Rothchilds 40 from Chicago, at 6½ @7¼.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

There was a very fair supply of this class of stock on sale, but as in the case of cattle, they were mainly of an inferior quality, and while prime fat sheep were in good demand and sold at full prices, inferior and common were very dull and had to be sold at very low figures. The former may be quoted at from 5 to 5½ cents per pound, while the latter brought 3½ cts. down to nothing. The great proportion of the sheep on sale to-day were from Butler county, and, as already noted, consisted mainly of the lower grades, just the kinds that the scalawag butchers want as they can be bought for almost nothiug. Lambs also were in good supply, and, as in the case of sheep, mainly of an inferior grade—sales at $1@3,75 per head.

Stakely & Bro. 350—sheep at $1,50@ 4,50 per head; lambs at 75 to 3,50.

R. Stauffer 80 sheep at an average of $2,50per head.

Beighle 43 sheep, at $1,25@2,25.

Sheltemantle & Flinner 150—sheep at $1,25@2,50; lambs at about same figures.

Garwin & Co. 140 sheep and lambs.

Adam & Eckert 199 sheep and lambs, 1,75@4.

John Walters 190 sheep and lambs, at 75@2,50.

J C McNees 140 sheep and lambs, at $1@2,50.

C. Beeler 100 lambs at $1,50@2,50.

N. Fulland 50 sheep, at 3 cents per pound.

C. H. Mualton 50 sheep and lambs, at $2,25@3.

C. Haas 66 sheep and lambs, at $3¾@ 3¾.

R. Kirker 55 sheeep and lambs, at $2,50@3.

J. F. Neely 141—sheep at $4,50; lambs, at 75@4,25.

Jonathan Davis 140—sheep at $2@3; lambs at same.

John Kerwin 82 sheep, aa 2½@5 cents per pound.

HOGS.

The retail demand is rather better, and while the market is a little more active and stronger, prices, compared with last week have undergone no change, rangfrom 11 to 11½. Stock hogs are still quoted at 10@10½.

WOOL MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, August 27, 1869.

We have no particular change to note in the market since our last. We hear of considerable sales of fine wools in the adjoining counties at 43 to 45.

The Harvest being nearly over, it is probable that wool growers, generally, will now embrace the opportunity of selling their clips, at the prices named; 43 to 45 is certainly as high as can be expected, or as high as the Eastern markets will warrant. In fact we do not see any margin of profit at those prices, until an advance is established in the Eastern markets. We extract from the Boston Commercial Bulletin the following: The sales of wool continue on a liberal scale, but no material change in prices. The current receipts are larger, and dealers are disposed to meet the market promptly for nearly all grades.

Walter Brown & Co's. circular states that the future prospects of wool depend mostly on the result of the fall trade in woolen goods. They have been moving more freely of late, but without improvement in prices. We have still to contend with the fact that the importations of foreign wools have been much larger this year than last, and the low quotations in Europe make practicable to import wools that will compete favorably with our finer wools.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, August 9.—The failure of Bowers, Beekman & Co., has cast a gloom over the market to-day, and business is languid, except in woolens, shawls, and other specialties. A hat and cap house of good sanding has also failed. In cotton goods trade remains quiet but prices are nevertheless steady.

Live Stock Markets.

NEW YORK, August 9.—Cattle are doing better, with sales of 5,955 head for the week and 3,156 for to-day. The quality is poor, several lots of thin Texans being among them, besides nearly 3,000 Florida scalawags of the hardest sort. They come direct by steamers and were nine days at sea, eating almost nothing and very poor when started, and would not dress much over 3 cwt., and no one will purchase. They will go into the country if the authorities permit it. They are covered with ticks, and dying in the yards, probably from exhaustion. Some very fine 7 cwt. Texans from Alexander farm brought 14@ 15c.; they had been wintered over and were the best Texans seen here for years. There was a good market for fat cattle, and the prices were ¼@½c higher; all the good cattle were sold at 15@16c. No extras were on sale; the poorest brought 11c. Excluding the Florida stock, the market averaged 14c. Illinois gave 3,920 cattle, Kentucky 736, Texas 340; of the Alexander cattle, 200 fat 7 cwt. Illinois steers brought 15@16c; a car of 8¾ cwt. Kentucky grades averaged 16c; 76 head common Illinois cattle, 5¾ cwt., sold at 13@14½c. Sheep are plenty and dull, the 12,050 head of to day completing 35,780 head for the week; they are not all selling, at 4¾@6½c for sheep and 7@8¾c for lambs; a car Pennsylvania lambs, 55 pounds, 7½c.; a car Canada, 60 pounds, 8c.; and a car of Ohio sheep, 75 pounds, sold at 5c.; a car, 80 pounds, 6¼c., with a few extra, 120 pounds, Canada, at 7c. Total of hogs, 24,184, with 80 cars to-day; they are selling at 12¾c. dressed; a car of 208 pounds Ohio stillers brought 10c. alive; a car of 205 pounds Illinois corn hogs brought $10,31 per cwt. The market is not strong.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Cattle firmer at $4,50 @5,50 for common to good cows; $6@6,80 for fair to medium; $7,12½@7,40 for good to choice; $7,62½@7,75 for extra prime shipping beeves. Hogs active and 10@ 15c higher at $8,85@9,15 for common to fair; $9,25@9,50 for fair to medium; $9,62½ @10 for good to choice.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly with three feet by the Monongahela marks, though it is alleged that there is considerably more water in the channel than the marks indicate. Weather clear and pleasant; mercury at 5 P. M., 80 in shade.

The Julia from Zanesville is the only arrival. She was behind time considerably, having been detained at Glass House by low water.

The New State for Wheeling, and Petrolia for Parkersburg departed.

The new steamer Jefferson, Capt. G. W. Rea, leaves for St. Louis to-day without fail, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind.

The R. C. Gray, from Cincinnati, and Bellevernon from St. Louis, are among the first boats due.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp, 51¼f.

U. S. BONDS at Frankfort, 88⅛@88¼.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 135⅝.

IT is stated that the new railway-line from the Allegheny Valley road, at the mouth of Mahoning creek, to Driftwood, on the Philadelphia and Erie road, is to be constructed by the first-named corporation, the Pennsylvania Railroad endorsing $3,000,000 of its sureties to be appropriated to building the line eastward from Brookville. It is also understood that the work is to be put in hand at once, to be finished within two years. The facilities for the carriage by rail of eastern-bound freights from Pittsburgh and the west will then be duplicated.

IF THERE WERE any basis for the other day's rumor that our Attorney General BREWSTER was likely to be appointed to succeed Judge HOAR in the same office under the Federal Administration, it is evident that the gentleman fails to see it. He has been invited to resign his present position, in order "to heal existing dissensions," but declines to accede to the request. The request and the declination may have an effect quite equivalent to the desired resignation, in settling the political status of that official. This is the only hypothesis upon which the public notoriety of the request and of its refusal can be politically justified.

THE Governor General of Canada has semi-officially but none the less significantly announced to the people of the New Dominion that they are quite at liberty to assume an independent sovereignty whenever they may so incline. This remarkable declaration has electrified the Canadians; indeed they are stunned as by an unexpected shock. But they will soon find thought and expression, and the political destinies of the British Possessions on this Continent impend upon another twelve months' issue. England withdraws her military force, except so much thereof as Canada insists upon retaining at her own expense, and this great colonial empire finds itself remitted, by an unforeseen stroke of the Imperial policy, to an absolute self-government, with perfect liberty to remain a colony, to stand as an independent power, or to apply for admission to the American Union. Every probability points to the last of these alternatives. The responsibilities from which England is now self-absolved are quite too weighty for the unsupported shoulders of the Canadian proprietors, but will be no burthen within and upon the Republic.

THEY say that Chief Justice CHASE is deep in an intrigue to manipulate the conjoint influence of Democratic Conservatism at the South, and of the progressive Democracy at the North, in favor of his own personal aspirations for a Presidential nomination in 1872. His success is by no means beyond the possibilities. He is the most faithful living representative of a National party which is without a single National principle, and which can never recover power except by the abandonment of its past record, and a miraculous oblivion of its past offences against the peace and honor of the Republic. Herein is the only Democratic hope—and the only possibility for the ambitious Chief Justice. Nor will it damage him, as a Democratic candidate, that he has himself blotted his public reputation with indelible stains, that he has systematically betrayed every friend, that he has falsified every high profession, that he has sullied the ermine of the bench, and that he stands before his countrymen to-day the most conspicuous example in the land of an unscrupulous politician, who reckons no personal or political sacrifice, of any sort, too great a price to pay for official elevation. He is the very man for opposition favor—a fact which is patent to him and to them alike. And events will make this more and more clear.

GEARY AND PARDONS.

A few days since, we cited the official records of the Commonwealth, in proof of the fact that the pardoning-power has been used with notable caution by the present Executive. It will be remembered that these records show that, of the sixteen Governors since 1791, eleven have pardoned a larger yearly average of convicted criminals, and but four have made a smaller average, than has Governor GEARY. In that connection, the statement of another fact was omitted, which it is of importance to present for an exact understanding of any merits which the question involves. It is this: Prior to the entrance of Gov. GEARY upon his office, the pardoning-power of the Commonwealth was practically shared between the Executive and the Criminal Courts of Philadelphia. These tribunals claimed, and exercised, a special privilege, in the way of a remission of the sentences of such criminals as had been convicted therein, which was really tantamount to a wholesale dispensation of pardons. For example, in one year, immediately preceding the arrest of the abuse through proceedings taken at the instance of the present Governor, the Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia released no less than seventy-five convicted criminals. We are to remember that a large proportion of the cases in which pardon is sought for, indeed of the entire criminal calender of Pennsylvania, have their venue in and about that great city. What its Courts did in 1866, to turn convicts loose upon society, they had regularly been doing for years. Add the sentences thus remitted to the number of those others which the Governor, then in office, also pardoned, and the aggregate each year largely exceeded, under each and all of the former Governors of Pennsylvania, the average of Gov. GEARY'S pardons. Under his administration, fewer criminals have been released from their penalties, than under any of his predecessors in the Executive office.

To Governor GEARY belongs the credit of the discontinuance of this abuse by the Philadelphia courts. Their power of remission was challenged at his instance, contested, carried before the Supreme Court and there decided to be unconstitutional. The Philadelphia Democracy may not forgive him for this, but the people of the Commonwealth feel otherwise.

EMIGRATION FROM CHINA.

That the Chinese are remarkably patient, docile, industrious, temperate and honest, is conceded by all unprejudiced persons who have had dealings with them either in their own country or in this. These are great excellencies, which make the possessors of them a desirable element of population in this republic, under existing circumstances, or under almost any conceiveable aspect of affairs that may hereafter arise. Much remains to be done towards the complete development of natural resources, and the Chinese in large numbers, would contribute admirably toward the consummation of the process. Two objections, at least, are urged against allowing them to immigrate hither, or to their admission to citizenship in case they come.

Reducing the first of these objections from the ambiguous and deceitful terms in which it is couched to plain forms of speech, it amounts to this, that the Chinese, owing to their simple habits, will lay up so much at ordinary wages, or manage to get on so comfortably with smaller compensation than that exacted by other classes of toilers, that it will not do to let them obtain a firm foothold here. Seeing all that this means, we do not admit its conclusiveness. What the people of this country need, above most things else, is an example of frugality. No other population under the whole heavens is one-half so prodigal, or so ostentatious in the display of that vice.

The other objection is, that they are not Christians but heathens. But they who press this objection ought to remember that it is a cardinal doctrine of Christianity that Christ is yet to subdue the whole world to himself; which phrase signifies, if it has any meaning, that all the inhabitants of the earth are to become Christian. Upon this hypothesis missionary enterprises are prosecuted. Surely it is cheaper to have the heathen come here to get the gospel for themselves than to carry it across the ocean to them. If it is thought that when the Chinese see what Christianity is, not in liturgy and creed, but in daily life, they will not take to it kindly, and so had better be kept away, why, then Christianity is wounded, but only in the house of its friends. It must be confessed, with shame, that if the Chinese possess the virtues we have allowed them, they are already decidedly superior to many who make loud professions of adhering to the only genuine religion.

The Chinese who are established in the republic maintain the forms of worship in which they were educated by their fathers. It is certainly possible that the multitudes who will soon follow them hither will erect their traditional altars, side by side with Christian temples. If they shall, what law will they offend? None, surely, that we know of. Our civil institutions are based upon the idea of perfect freedom in matters of religion. No man has a right to interpose between God and his neighbor. Some, indeed, imperfectly comprehend this liberty, as they do other forms of the same substance; but their stupidity or ignorance does not lessen the value thereof or render it destructible. Friction and heat may exist for awhile, as now in California, on this subject; but in the end, and presently, the whole truth will be discerned and its claims admitted. Twenty years ago, all kinds of liberty were challenged, as though they only were exercised by indulgence and not inherent and immutable. In the searching discussions that followed liberty was not simply vindicated; it was so illustrated that everybody was constrained to apprehend its absolute nature and applications. In their efforts in behalf of the slaves the abolitionists first liberated themselves from all paltry passions and prejudices—which was, in fact, their chief and sublimest work—and then liberated the slaves, which was but an inference from their own emancipation. The right of one set of men to differ from all others, even on matters of the most vital and enduring concernment, has been conquered, and will not be given up.

But, it is useless to discuss this question under this view. The advance-guard of the Chinese immigration is here, and the arrival of the main body will not be resisted. What remains to do, is to prepare for it, so as to get the best that is possible out of it when it comes.

AN INFELICITY OF WEALTH.

Democracies, whether civil or religious, are unfriendly to wealth and its possessors. A distinguished clergyman was recently reported as saying that it always distressed him to have a man die leaving a fortune as large as an hundred thousand dollars. The expression embodied the matured judgment of a numerous class of religionists, who conceive that poverty is akin to godliness. An emi-writer on political economy reduced the same conception to the aphorism that "wealth is robbery." Perceiving that while some abound in the good things of this life, others are impoverished, he jumped to the conclusion that the consolidation of much in few hands necessarily tended to deprive many others of proper comforts, upon a principle analagous to that by which the upheaval of mountains produces not only a relative but an actual depression of valleys.

In monarchies, on the other hand, the concentration of wealth, in large quantities in few persons, is regarded as consistent and indispensable. Civic, political and military services are rewarded by liberal largesses from the public funds. Nor is it deemed disgraceful for ambitious individuals, desiring political promotion, to buy honors either of the Crown or of fellow subjects. Hence the vast sums paid in England to obtain seats in Parliament, and in all regal governments for peerages. Montesquieu goes so far as to affirm that while virtue and honesty are essential to the perpetuation of a republic, they are necessary, but rather hindrances, to the maintenance of monarchies.

Speaking in general terms, it may be said that in the United States the possession of wealth is a drawback upon most men who seek political preferment. This proceeds from that innate jealousy of wealth, and particularly of its display in any of the ordinary forms, which comports with the radical idea of a democracy. The idea prevails widely that if a man has wealth, he must have acquired it dishonestly. The process by which this conclusion is reached is this; all wealth is the product of labor,—and all labor is mainly or purely physical or muscular. Of course the first part of this process is misleading, and the last part utterly false. Wealth exists abundantly, often spontaneously, in nature, and frequently the mere taking and holding possession is affluence; and when the problem becomes one of work they who toil with bone and muscle solely or largely, will always and properly be surpassed by those who put brain into their labor, and exactly in ratio as they put it in. If flesh and blood were the crowning glories of human beings, as foolish ones assume, under various forms, the conclusion will be admissable that all honest work is bodily; but as the higher portions of man are mental and affetional, it must follow that they who put most thought and emotion into their toil, in legitimate ways, are entitled to most compensation and, in the long run, will get it.

How difficult it is for a wealthy corporation to obtain justice when impleaded before a jury with a poor man! The fact that one is poverty-stricken and the other opulent, is almost certain to incline the scales of justice unreasonably against the rich. The result is not essentially different when the parties to a suit are individuals, the one rich and the other poor. The poverty of a litigant, if he can manage to survive the "law's delays," is sure to tell in his favor. In criminal proceedings, however, a poor man is generally certain to have justice meted out to him, unless he is an important member of a political party, while a rich man, outside of Massachusetts, can rely pretty safely upon gilding his crimes with gold so effectually as to be able to snap his fingers in defiance of all penal statutes.

Even in politics a man's wealth is seldom an advantage to him in this country. It is often a dead-weight upon his prospects, which he finds it difficult to overcome. If he have transcendant abilities, or a bearing and address insinuating to an extraordinary degree, his wealth may be forgiven him; otherwise he may well calculate that his wealth will be the chief accusation urged against him, and that the prevalent jealousy of riches will render the accusation fatal to him.

Look at the exemplification of this statement furnished in the case of Mr. ASA PACKER. He was nominated for Governor by the Democrats because he was almost fabulously rich, and because of nothing else. If he had been a poor man, and just as he is in all other respects, he would not have been nominated or even thought of in connection with the gubernatorial chair. By the confession of political friends who know him best, he is not a man of ideas. He has been tried in public stations, and has proved a signal failure. But the expectation that he would use his money to help his chances, and those of his party, induced the Democrats to give him his present political conspicuity. There is this excuse for them, that they had tried every other means of success, and been baffled, and as nothing remained but to experiment with money bags, it was worth while to try what virtue might possibly be found in them.

What is the result, thus far? Why, this, that the nomination of Mr. PACKER has failed to awaken any enthusiasm; that the natural repugnance of the Democratic masses for rich men has not been conquered by the admiration of the leaders for them; and that he will be most ingloriously defeated. No use he can make of his enormous financial resources, even if he shall be found disposed to fulfill the expectations in that regard of many, if not most, of those who favored his nomination, will avail to spare him the humiliation of a defeat. If he were a brilliant orator or a profound statesman, his riches might be forgiven him by his co-partisans; but having only money to assign as a reason why he should be chosen, he cannot overcome the antipathy the majority of the Democrats feel towards men of his sort.

A Father Kills His Son.

A shocking tragedy at Cleveland is thus reported by the Herald of yesterday:

At half-past twelve o'clock on Monday morning a terrible tragedy occurred at the Lake View House, at the corner of Seneca and Summit streets, on the bank of the lake. Philip Gilmartin, proprietor of the house, shot and instantly killed his son, Thos. Gilmartin, while the latter was attempting to enter the house. The circumstances as related by the father, who is a gray-haired man, sixty-three years of age, are as follows:

He retired, with his wife, at the usual hour, and the lights were extinguished. Thomas was not in the house, but this was not uncommon for him, as he was in the habit of being out about the city at all hours of the night. At the time mentioned Mr. Gilmartin and his wife were awakened by the rattling of a window sash and were soon convinced that some person was attempting to enter. Being old people and having a sum of money in the house, they were naturally suspicious of burglars. The noise was at a window upon the north side of the house opening into a room adjoining their sleeping apartment.

Mr. Gilmartin had in his room an old Harper's Ferry musket, shortened to the length of a carbine, which he kept loaded for any emergency of this kind. Taking this in his hand he proceeded to the window, discerning in the dim light the form of a man just in the act of clambering upon the sill, the lower half of the sash having been removed. He first challenged the intruder with: "Who's there?" but he did not receive any reply. Feeling satisfied that he was a burglar. Mr. Gilmartin immediately raised his gun and fired. The man fell upon the inside, without a cry or moan.

The report aroused the other inmates of the house and some of the neighbors, and for a few minutes a scene of the wildest excitement prevailed. Upon going to the spot the man was found where he fell, in the expiring agonies of death. The horror and amzsement of the aged father and the other members of the family, when they recognized the face of Thomas Gilmartin, can be but faintly imagined. A physician was immediately sent for, and the still breathing man was taken into the house. The physician soon arrived, but nothing could be done, and he died within a few minutes. After being shot he neither spoke nor gave any sign of consciousness. The ball, which was a large one, entered the right eye and passed entirely through the head, emerging at the back side. The head, torn and mangled, presented a shocking spectacle.

The police were immediately notified of the affair, and Gilmartin was taken into custody. He is known as an innocent, inoffensive old gentleman. He was almost overcome with grief at the terrible deed he had unwittingly committed. The Coroner will hold an inquest on Monday, when some further light may be thrown upon the matter. As the case appears, there is not the slightest evidence of any criminality upon the part of Mr. Gilmartin, and he will probably be discharged. The deceased was twenty nine years of age, and was a notoriously bad character.

—Thomas Shields, living in Brooklyn, was arrested on Sunday on a charge of causing the death of his wife by neglecting to provide the necessaries of life. The wretched woman died from sheer destitution and want.

The German Turners.

The seventeenth annual festival of the Turner Society in this country commenced at Chicago on Saturday last, and will continue four days, closing on Wednesday. This grand old German order, which has flourished so extensively in the old country, has taken a firm root in this, in our large cities especially; and the festival at Chicago, according to the Tribune, will be marked by great gaiety and ceremony. There are to be concerts, illuminations, processions, speeches, exercises, intellectual and physical, feasting and music, dancing and fireworks. The exercises are to be out-door, in a fine grove; a large Fest-Halle has been erected, in which the banquet will take place; a beautiful triumphial arch spans the street at the entrance of Turner Hall, and the street through which the procession will move is gaily decorated with flowers, banners and appropriate devices. The grand concert, which will follow the prize essays and turning, will be composed of 150 singers and an orchestra of 50 performers. On the last day the Turner Teachers and Wartz Congress meet for deliberation; the prizes will then be distributed, an excursion will follow, and the whole will wind up with a grand ball.

The Tribune says very correctly of this order:

"The Turners date their origin from the German war of independence against the first Napoleon, the founder of Turnerel being Professor Jahn, of Berlin, commonly called Vatca Jahn. It was a patriotic movement, intended to promote and cultivate in the minds of young Germans those healthy ideas of education which, in more recent days, have been advocated by Charles Kingsley and the school of "muscular Christians." Father Jahn organized the Turners with a view to unite the training of the body with that of the mind, justly regarding the healthy progress of the one inseparable from that of the other. His idea was eagerly embraced, and was soon carried into practice all over Germany. Turner organizations became the rage, and they took an active part in the war which resulted in the liberation of Germany. From that period the ideas inculcated by the founder took firm root, and Turner classes became a feature in all the schools of the country. A prominent feature of the education of the youth, aside from the physical exercises, was the promulgation of ideas of political and religious liberty, and those have formed a notable element in the history of the organization. One clause in their platform is that no man can be a member of the Turner society unless he is a friend to social, political and religious freedom, and opposed to slavery in every form.

The first Turner's Society in this country was organized in New York, and for a long time they had various difficulties to contend with. These were gradually surmounted, and at the present day they are a numerous and powerful body in every city in which the German element is to be found. The United States is divided into districts, each district having an Executive Committee, which meets once a month, and over all these is a Vorort, or directorium. Universal brotherhood is the motto of the Turners, and this is illustrated by the peculiar form of address which is used between members. They use the pronoun du (thou), which any one familiar with the German language knows can only be permitted between brothers and sisters, or very intimate friends.

When the war broke out in this country the Turners were among the very foremost to respond to the call. In the cities of New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Chicago, the first regiments that were organized were Turner regiments. As an organization they present high claims to our gratitude and admiration, while the system of education which they inaugurated in Germany, and have carried out in America, might well be emulated with beneficial results."

WHEN President Grant went to see Judge Pierrepont, in New York, Tuesday, the Judge was not in his office. A clerk attended, and the President asked him the customary questions, as to when the Judge would return, only to receive some very impertinent answers. In the sequel the identity of the President was discovered, and an awkward apology tendered, as it would not have been, probably, to a less conspicuous personage. A great evil in this country is the incivility of many subordinates in public offices. General complaints are made of impertinence to civil inquiries from people having business to attend to, and it is to be hoped that the lesson in good manners growing out of this incident in New York may be properly improved, and that hereafter all civil applicants, whether of low or high degree, for information at our public offices, will be met with civil answers.

Pennsylvania Postoffices.

Establishments—Turtle Point, McKean county, D. Simpson, Jr., Postmaster, between Port Alleghany and Smethport. Appointments—James Smith, Postmaster, Canal, Venango county, vice Ephraim M. Brown, resigned; Jesse Armstrong, Postmaster, Heistersburg, Fayette county, vice Thos. W. Lynch, resigned; John W. McCully, Postmaster, Terryopolis, Fayette county, vice Wm. J. Grist, removed; Solomon Fleger, Postmaster, Barnhart's Mills, Butler county, vice Andrew Barnhart, not commissioned.

The East River Bridge.

This bridge is not only destined to be built, but to prove one of the wonders of the age. Beginning near the New York City Hall and ending near the Brooklyn City Hall, with towers 130 feet above the highest tide, and a span of 1,600 feet—twice that of the Niagara Bridge—it will be one of the wonders of America. The strength of the bridge will support more than a double train of horse cars for the whole distance between the rivers. The sight of the Niagara Suspension Bridge is a grand sight—that of the East River Bridge will be stupendons.

SAYS the Harrisburg Telegraph: "Notwithstanding the large supply of coal on hand, and the laborers working without an increase of pay, the coal operators, of whom Asa Packer, the Democratic candidate, is the twenty million millionaire, have advanced the price of coal since the first day of August seventy five cents per ton. The laborers and working men will remember how easy it is to make a million per year out of their hard earnings when seventy-five cents or a dollar per ton can to easily be extorted from their pockets. The money expended to buy a nomination for Governor is thus made up from the poor man in less than one month."

BREIF TELEGRAMS.

—Jas. G. Hanley, the well known actor, died at New York yesterday.

—The first bale of new cotton, from Texas, arrived at New York yesterday en route to Liverpool.

—Several buildings were burned at Fremont, Nebraska, a day or two ago. Loss $250,000; partially insured.

—The citizens of Quincy, Illinois, on Saturday, voted to subscribe half a million of dollars to the Quincy, Missouri and Pacific railroad.

—A block of buildings in Yonkers, N. Y., was burned Sunday night, involving a loss of $200,000, on which there was but little insurance.

—The revenue receipts from tobacco in three districts in Virginia, from February 1st to August 1st, are one million dollars in excess of the same time last year.

—Walter Brown, champion oarsman of America, left New York, on Saturday, by the steamer for Liverpool, to row a match for the championship of England.

—In the game of base ball at Cleveland, yesterday, between the Niagaras, of Buffalo, and Forest City, of Cleveland, the latter were victorious. Score, forty to thirty-six.

—The striking tailors of New York city had a parade yesterday, and also held a meeting in the Park, at which the best order and decorum was observed. The procession was large.

—At Cleveland, Sunday morning, Philip Gilmarten, proprietor of the Lake View House, shot and killed his son Thomas, supposing him to be a burglar attempting to enter the house.

—Vice President Colfax and party reached Virginia City, Nevada, yesterday morning and were received with a salute of one hundred guns. The city was decorated with flags and much enthusiasm manifested.

The Result in Tennessee.

A Nashville letter says: The next Legislature will be Conservative, but there will be three parties—Whigs, Democrats and Radicals. People are now discussing the election of Andrew Johnson to the United States Senate. Ethridge will oppose him. The Conservatives are rejoicing, and the streets are crowded. Dispatches from West Tennessee give Senter a large majority in all the counties. The vote is increased largely, compared to the Presidential vote last Fall. The liberal registration allowed almost everybody to vote. All the members of the Legislature elect in West Tennessee are probably Democrats, except three or four. All the whites voted that wished to, every precaution being taken to prevent colored men from voting. The registers directed that they vote at their own precincts, where they would vote the Republican ticket only at the peril of their lives. The Register of this county threatened to seize the railroad trains if employed to bring negroes to vote. In Memphis fully five hundred voters in the eastern part of the county lost their chance by the Memphis and Charleston Railroad not allowing them to come in. Conductors were instructed to run past stations to prevent colored people from reaching the city. Colored voters were challenged on the most trivial pretext. Pistols were drawn on some in the country, and their certificates forced from them.

DR. KEYSER'S BOWEL CUEE is one of the most valuable remedies ever discovered for all diseases incident to this season of the year. Hundreds of sufferers could be relieved in less than a day by a speedy resort to this most valuable medicine, particularly valuable, when the system is apt to become disordered by the two free use of unripe and crude vegetables.

Price 50 Cents. Sold at DR. KEYSER'S GREAT MEDICINE STORE, 167 Liberty St., and by all druggists.

THE CONDITIONS OF HEALTH.

It is idle to expect health if the precautions necessary to secure it are neglected. The human organization is a delicate piece of mechanism, and requires as much intelligent care and watchfulness to keep it in order, as are requisite in the management of the most complicated combination of levers, wheels and pinions.

At this season of the year the body is peculiarly sensitive, because it is greatly weakened and relaxed by the continuous heat. The skin, in summer, with its millions of pores wide open, is a very different sort of tegument from the compact fibrous covering which it becomes under the action of the winter's cold. The muscles, too, are comparatively flaccid, the nerves tremulous, the blood poor, and the whole frame less capable of enduring fatigue and resisting disease. These indications of a depressed condition of the vital forces are so many unmistakable hints that nature needs reinforcing.

Ordinary stimulants will not effect this object. They inflame and excite, but do not strengthen. The only preparation which can be depended upon to impart staminal vigor to the system, and enable it to endure the ordeal of the heated term without giving way under the pressure, is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a tonic and corrective so pure, so harmless, so utterly free from the drawbacks which render many of the powerful astringents employed in medical practice more dangerous than the ailments they are employed to cure, that it may be administered without fear to the feebiest female invalid, or the most delicate child. The cathartic and alterative vegetable ingredients, which are combined with those of a tonic nature in its composition, keep the bowels moderately free and perfectly regular, while the work of invigoration is going on. The finest blood depurents which the herbal kingdom affords are also among its components, so that it recruits, purifies and regulates the system simultaneously.

PACIFIC RAILWAY GOLD LOAN.

Messrs. DABNEY, MORGAN & CO., 53 Exchange Place, and M. K. JESUP & CO., 12 Pine Street, N. Y., offer for sale the Bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway. These Bonds pay seven per cent. in Gold; have thirty years to run; are Free from Government Taxation; are secured by a Land Grant of Three Million Acres of the Finest Lands in Kansas and Colorado. In addition to this special grant the Company also owns Three Millions of Acres in Kansas, which are being rapidly sold to develop the country and improve the road. They are a first mortgage upon the extension of the road from Sheridan, Kansas, to Denver, Colorado. The road in operation NOW EARNS MORE THAN ENOUGH NET INCOME TO PAY THE INTEREST ON THE NEW LOAN. There is no better security in the market—this being in some respects better than Government Securities. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD. Price 96, and accrued Interest, in Currency. Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and MODERATOR.

For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.

It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. Also Territorial rights to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges either by State or county.

DISSOLUTION.

The partnership heretofore existing under the name of JOHN THOMPSON & CO. was dissolved on the 1st of July last by the withdrawal of John Thompson. The business will be carried on as usual, at the old establishment, 135 THIRD AVENUE.

JOHN THOMPSON,
ROBERT THOMPSON,
R. C. MILLER.

In retiring from the above firm I would cordially recommend my former partners to my old customers and the public generally, believing that the business will be carried on by them in an honest and upright manner, and I would desire to return my sincere thanks to my friends for the very liberal patronage I have received from them during the thirty one years I have carried on business in Pittsburgh.

JOHN THOMPSON.

The undersigned, successors to John Thompson & Co., have formed a partnership dating from July first, under the name of

THOMPSON & MILLER,

and will continue the business of HOUSE PAINTING, and dealing in PLAIN AND ORNAMENTAL FOREIGN GLASS, at the old stand, 135 THIRD AVENUE.

Thankful for the favors of the past we would respectfully ask the continued patronage of our friends and the public, assuring them that we will spare no pains to render satisfaction in every case in which we may be employed.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, Augus 9, 1869.

The government bond market is very dull and lower, especially new bonds and 10-40s. Old 1862s are still quoted as before. Since the late advance in bonds, the demand for investment in them has entirely ceased, and the government remains the sole purchaser at present.

Gold is very dull and has declined from the opening price, 136¾, to 135¾. The export demand is still light, and the speculative interest has died out for the present, yet large amounts are held on speculation for the higher prices.

Stocks are dull and heavy for all but the western roads.

Money not much in demand, and rates unaltered.

Quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 135¾; Silver, 130; Eighty-one's, 124½; Five Twenties, 1862, 125; do 1864, 123½; do 1865, 123¾; do 1865, Consols, 122¾; do 1867, 122¼; do 1868, 122¼; Ten Forties, 115¾; New York Central, 211¾; Erie, —; Reading, 97½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 153½; Ohio & Misisippi, 32½; Michigan Southern, 108¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 107¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 116⅝; Chicago & North Western, 91⅞; Chicago & North Western Preferred, 100¾; Adams Express Company, 59¼; Merchants Union Express, 41¼; Pacific Mail, 85¼; Western Union Telegraph Company, 38¾; Am. W. Express, 59½.

EXCHANGE,	Large.	Small.
London, per £	$6,72	$6,78
Paris, per franc	26¾	27⅛
Berlin, thaler	98¼	99½

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 9, 1869.

Money easy and steady at 5@7 per cent. for call loans. Sterling quiet at 9¾@10¼ per cent. for American. Gold is lower, opening at 136¾ and closing at 135¾. Carrying rates at 4@5 per cent. The clearances were $22,000,000.

Governments are quiet and a shade easier; the supply available for speculative transactions on Stock Exchange is small. Coupons of '81, 124¾@125; do. '62, 125@125¼; do. '64, 123½@123¾; do. '65, 123½@123⅝; do. new, 122⅛@122¼; do. '67, 122¾@122½; do. 68, 122¼@122½; 10-40's, 115⅝@115¾; Pacifics, 111@111⅞.

State bonds steadier; Missouris 87½; old Tennessees 62; new do. 55; old North Carolinas 56; new do. 51¼; old virginias 57; new do. 60½.

Railroad bonds are neglected; Union Pacifics 89¼; Central Pacifics 93½.

Stocks were buoyant most of the day and the market advanced in rates, especially in western; market closed irregular, but in the main firm. The upward speculation in western stocks is assisted by the prospect of large earnings during the Fall, and in regard to the extreme western roads by reports, which cannot be verified, that the Great Eastern Trunk Roads are seeking to obtain a controlling interest, with a view to future connection, either by lease or by consolidation. In regard to Vanderbilt stocks, we hear there is to be another meeting of the Committee of the two companies at Saratoga, this week, to consider the terms of consolidation of the Central & Hudson, when it is expected that the basis of consolidation will be settled.

Five-Thirty Prices: Canton, 38; Cumberland, 34¾; Western Union Telegraph, 38½; Quicksilver, 15¾; Mariposa, 7⅝; do. preferred, 15; Pacific Mail, 87; Water Power, —; Adams Express, 59½; Wells 20¾; American, 41; United States, 68; Merchants Union, 10; New York Central, 211½; Harlem, 165¾; Hudson, 186½; Reading, 97¾; Erie, 28¾; do. preferred, 54½; Michigan Central, 131; Michigan Southern, 108¼; Illinois Central, 141; Pittsburgh, 107¼; Northwestern, 92; do. preferred, 101⅛; Columbus, Cleveland and Cincinnati, 74; Rock Island, 116¾; St. Paul, 84¾; do. preferred, 92¼; Wabash, 74½; do. preferred, 83½; Fort Wayne, 153¾; Terre Haute, 36; do. preferred, 58½; Chicago and Alton, 163; do. preferred, 164; Ohio and Mississippi, 32⅜; St. Joe 130¼; Burlington & Quincy, 196; Marietta, 1st preferred, 20.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, August 9, 1869.

Flour and Wheat are both reported strong in Chicago and New York today, which is attributed to the foreign news. In this market, however, there is no change, as Pittsburgh this season does not seem to have been influenced by other places, so far at least as the trade concerned, and it is relatively cheaper here than in any of the leading markets. Stocks in the hands of dealers continue light, and while the mills have plenty of orders, and are selling about all the flour they can make, yet, it is said that they are making no money. And notwithstanding wheat is cheap here, compared with other points, yet it is relatively higher than flour, and this is the reason why the mills have no profit. It may be asked why do not millers advance their prices, but as has been the case all season, the competition for trade is so strong, both among dealers and millers, that there can be no uniformity of action, and, as a consequence, it seems almost impossible to establish an advance. As long as dealers can stand it, however, consumers have no right to complain.

APPLES—In good supply and dull and drooping; sales at $3@4 per bbl.

BUTTER—Is, also, in good supply and dull, and it looks as though prices would have to go lower. We continue to quote, at 20 to 23@24.

BERRIES—Market almost bare today; Blackberries may be quoted at $4@$6 per case.

BEANS—Sales at $1,75@2.

BROOMS—Quoted as follows: No. 5 $6,50; No. 4 $6: No. 3 $5, No. 2, plain, $4,50, and market firm.

CHEESE—In good supply and dull, but unchanged.

CEMENT—Johnstown Hydraulic Cement is quoted at $2,25 per bbl.

CARBON OIL—Standard brands may be quoted at 28 for 50 or 100 bbl lots and 30 in a retail way.

DRIED FRUIT—Out of season.

EGGS—Very dull and drooping; sales reported at 15@17.

FEATHERS—Dull; quoted at 80@85 cents to the trade, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—The market although firm with a light supply, is quiet and dull, but unchanged; we continue to quote spring wheat brands at $6,65@7 for fair to good, and $7,50@7,75 for choice to fancy. Winter wheat, $7@7,25.

GRAIN—Wheat is in light supply and firm, but unchanged—$1,30@1,35 for new, and $1,40 for prime old red. Oats dull with a drooping tendency; sales of old to the trade, at 65@66, and new on spot may be quoted at 50@53. Rye is quoted at $1,15 for new, and $1,20 for old. Corn is firm and in limited supply; we continue to quote on wharf and track at $1@1,05, for mixed to prime yellow. No price established as yet for barley.

HAY—Sales of new crop from country wagons at $15@20 per ton.

HEMP—Very dull, $205 per ton.

HUSKS—Sales at 2¾@3 cts per pound.

LIME—White Lime is quoted at $1,50, and Cleveland at $2,50, per bbl.

LARD OIL—F. Sellers & Co. quote Extra No. 1, at 1,44, and No. 2, at $1.05.

POULTRY—Sales of spring chickens, at 60@65 per pair.

POTATOES—Dull, but unchanged, $1,50@1,75 per bbl.

PROVISIONS—Firm with a good jobbing demand. Shoulders, 15½@15¾; Ribbed Sides, 18½@18¼, Clear do 19@19½; Breakfast bacon 22½; plain Hams 19@19¼, and Sugar Cured Hams, 23½@24; Lard, 20¼ in tierces, and 20¾@21 in half bbls and kegs. Mess Pork at $33,50@34.

PEACHES—Were rather better to-day, owing to the diminished receipts, and prices are a shade higher; we now quote at $1,75@2,00 per bushel.

PEANUTS—Sales, at 12½.

SALT—Allegheny River brands are quoted, by the car load, 1, at $1,75@80.

TALLOW—Rendered quoted at 10¼.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, August 9, 1869.

The clog in the oil business, noted from day to day for some time past, still continues with no prospect at present of any immediate improvemen. The trade is in that peculsar condition that there is no chance to do anything, and at no time for several months, has the market been so dull and stagnant as at present. Occasionally a sale is effected, occasioned by parties who are short buying to cover; as a general thing our refiners cannot and will not do anything at present prices, and it is probable that those of them who are not sold ahead, will suspend operations until there is a radical improvement. It is hoped that the clog in the business will soon right itself, and the indications for such an event are now pointing in that direction. It is to be regretted that the lull which now prevails should have occurred at this particular time, but then it seems that it could not be obviated.

CRUDE.

But a single sale reported, 500 bbls spot at 15. Private telegrams quote at $5,85 at Oil City, which is considered equivalent to 14¾ here. It is remarkable how crude keeps up in the present condition of affairs, and in view of the fact that it is much higher relatevely than refined. Time, it is said regulates all things, and it is to be supposed that it will regulate the oil business, too.

REFINED.

Was a little weak to-day, and compared with Saturday, prices are a shade lower. Sale of 1,000 each September and October at 32¼. Spot quoted at 31¾; and last half August at 31¾@32.

The Pittsburgh Gazette

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

Gooseberry Jam.—Stalk and chop as many as you require of ripe, red, rough gooseberries; put them into a preserving pan, and as they warm, stir and bruise them to bring out the juice. Let them boil for ten minutes, and add sugar in the porportion of three-quarters of a pound to every pound of fruit, and place it on the fire again; let it boil slowly, and continue boiling for two hours longer, stirring it all the time to prevent burning. When it thickens, and is jelly-like on a plate when cold, it is done enough. Put into pots, and allow it to remain a day or two before it is covered.

To Drive away Roaches and Ants.—Take powdered borax and scatter whereever cockroaches most frequent, and they will disappear directly. A safe and efficacious remedy for a most annoying vermin. Ants can be driven away out of cupboards if lumps of camphor are scattered about them. Ants object to strong scents, and in tropical climates are prevented from entering rooms by powerful scented oils and gums. A sponge can be sprinkled with sugar and laid upon shelves, when ants are numerous; the next morning plunge the sponge quickly into boiling water, and most of the intruders will be destroyed. Then scatter camphor, and you will have no trouble.

To Clear a Room of Mosquitoes.—Take of gum camphor a piece about one-third the size of an egg, and evaporate it by placing it in a tin vessel and holding it over a lamp, taking care that it does not ignite. The smoke will soon fill the room and expel the mosquitoes. One night I was terribly annoyed by them, when I thought of and tried the above, after which I never saw nor heard them that night, and the next morning there was not one to be found in the room, though the window had been left open all the night.

Nails in the Foot.—To relieve from the terrible effects of running a nail in the foot of man or horse take peach leaves, (when in the season), bruise them, apply to the wound, confine with a bandage, and the cure is as if by magic. Renew the applieation twice a day, if necessary, but one application generally does the work. Both man and horse have, in a few hours, when apparently on the point of having the lockjaw, been cured.

Protecting Young Trees.—The following is a cheap way to protect young trees from cattle. where they cannot be fenced conveniently without too much expense. Take fresh cow manure and dilute it a little with water or barn-yard soakings, so as to have it in a pasty condition; mop the same on with an old broom from the limbs down to the ground. Nothing will eat or rub their own manure. Practical experience teaches me this method; I saved a number of young trees after resorting to it. The cattle would rub them hither and thither until I adopted this plan.—Country Gentleman.

Steam Plows.—There are now five English steam plows running in this country, one in Kentucky, one in Texas and three in Louisiana. They cost about $15,000 and give great satisfaction, as they do the work of twenty or thirty horses with the labor of two or three attendants. In England there are two thousand of these plows, and in Egypt four hundred. They run a gang of from three to six plows, and pulverize as deep as fourteen inches. They can go much deeper if the farmer wishes. Two or three inventors are working out the Yankee steam plow. One proposes to build, for about $3,050, an engine that will move back and forth on the line of a wire rope fastened at the headlands to a self-advancing anchor.

Exhaustion of Land by Dairy Farming.—It has been suggested to us that cheese factories would be found to be unprofitable institutions in the end; that by increasing the area devoted to dairy pasturage, and thus decreasing the number of hogs, calves, and other stock raised in the regions where the factories are located, they will cause exhaustion of the soil, as the milk is all taken from the farm without return being made. The danger of such a result we think small. The process of exhaustion would certainly be slower than where hay or grain are largely sold. On many dairy farms grain and hay are purchased each year, and fed to the cows in addition to that raised on the farms.

There is one waste, comparatively small, which might be avoided. In many cases where cheese is made at factories the whey is lost to the farmers. We see no good reason why it should not be taken back and fed to hogs on the farm. We think it could be fed them more profitably than is ordinarily the case at factories.

We also believe it would be better for dairymen to raise their cows rather than buy them; better cows could thus be secured, and, ordinarily at less rates.

With a careful application of the large quantities of manure made on dairy farms, and the additional precautions of feeding whey to them, and raising calves instead of buying cows, we should expect such farms to improve in condition and fertility, rather than to see them retrograde.—Western Rural.

Diseases of Horses.—"For the cure of ring-bone; poll-evil or fistula, apply, when first noticed, one ounce of oil of spike, one ounce of oil of stone, and one pint spirits of turpentine, mix, and with as much gum of camphor as it will disolve. The hair ought to be cut off close, and apply every other day for a week at a time. If poll-evil is running or discharging, probe the tubes with verdigris and spirits of turpentine.

"For cholic; half an ounce spirits of turpentine rinsed down with water; or, a half pint of baking soda, and as much salts dissolved together, and pour into the animal.

For botts; one quart of sweet milk, and one pint of molasses mixed; and in an hour afterwards one pint of strong tobacco juice, and afterwards a good physic of salts or aloes.

ITEMS.

A great deal of corn is willfully wasted after all the trouble and expense of plowing, planting and harvesting. This waste is absolutely wicked, and with trifling extra care may be easily remedied. In the first place, in husking, a vigilant lookout ought to be kept that no unripe, unsound ear or half-made "nubbin" goes in with the pile that is to go into the crib. The pig pen is the better place for all such material. One unsound ear may, and often does, damage a whole bushel of sound corn. Next, wherever you are going to put corn to keep, put coal or gas tar about the premises pretty liberally at first. It is an utter abomination to rats and mice. They will not board in the corn-crib flavored pretty strongly with gas tar. Half a dollar's worth of tar will save ten dollar's worth of corn.

FOR tender mouth in horses, a correspondent of the Country Gentleman has been successful in using a chain nose piece. He says: "put a short piece of small chain in front of the horse's nose; fasten to the head stall by running through the rings at the lower end of the check-pieces. Attach your line to the chain, and you are ready for a start. After a day or two remove the bit and grease your horse's mouth, and it will soon be well. I used a horse two months without a bit, both single and double, and found no trouble in guiding him."

MR. OHMER, of Dayton, Ohio, who has good success in raising quinces, spades the ground of his orchard every spring, and scatters a peck of coal ashes around each tree. He finds salt the best manure on the quince, and applied about one quart to the ground under each tree after the soil has been spaded, and another quart when the quinces are about half grown. Last year he sold three hundred bushels of quinces from his orchard of three-quarters of an acre, at $2 to $3 per bushel.

THE following cure for the blind staggers is said to be infallible: Measure a stick from the nostrils to the inner corner of the eyes so as not to have it too long, sharpen well and run it up the nostril, twisting around once or twice, so as to make the nose bleed freely, and it will give instant releif. This remedy is so simple—the material being always on hand—that we consider it invaluable to farmers and horsemen.

A CORRESPONDENT of the American Institute Farmer's Club says that for removing knots from plum trees, he takes a paint brush, dips it in spirits of turpentine and thoroughly saturates the knot, being careful not to touch the tree except in the diseased parts. The turpentine kills the excrescence, and the trees put out healthy branches below it. He burns all branches of diseased trees removed in pruning.

A MINNESOTA gardener has tried the Paris green and ash remedy for potato bugs, and says it is effectual. The remedy is compounded by taking two parts of Paris green to twenty parts of ashes. A common meal-sieve was used in putting it upon the plants. Twenty-two pounds are sufficient for one acre of potatoes.

THE Agricultural Gazette estimates the annual consumption of wheat in the United Kingdom at 50,000,000 of quarters (it may be a million more), and states the annual yield per acre, throughout the kingdom, at twenty-seven bushels. An English quarter is eight bushels.

CLOVER can be plowed down too often in loamy soil. It makes it too loose, and the wheat is more easily frozen out. The surface should be well rolled in the fall; and, if the ground is dry enough, it should be rolled in the spring before the wheat starts much.

Summer Management of Sheep.

This is the best month to take a review and inspection of the whole flock, and determine the number of thriftless, unprofitable animals there are in the whole flock, and then bring them up, one lot at a time, and pick out the worst sheep from each lot, and make up a lot of mixed ages and sexes. This lot may now be kept separate and get extra care, with a little feed daily, so as to get them up in flesh, in order that in two months they, or a portion of them, may be used for mutton, and if there is a portion that do not fatten they should be sold to the pelters. They should not go into the flock to winter over again, nor should they be sold to a farmer for stock sheep, for the more he would buy of this kind of tail-end sheep the poorer he would grow. The lot of ewes and lambs should, during this month, have good attention. It should be seen that they have a good range with water. Many of the ewes that dropped their lambs in April are almost, and some of them entirely dry, and their lambs are left to subsist entirely upon the food they gather with the flock.

Lambs dropped in April may be weaned the first of August, and should not be delayed longer than the fifteenth. They may be prepared for it it by taking up the lot of ewes and lambs and keeping them a few days on short pasture, without water, and feed them in troughs a few times, so as to educate the lambs to eat from troughs.

When the ewes and lambs are separated they should be put in fields so distant apart that the old and young may not hear each other bleat. About the third day after separation, if there are many ewes having their udders hard and swollen, they and their lambs should be brought together again for about two hours, so that the lambs may draw the milk. If there are but few, the milk may be drawn with the hand, and thus prevent the udder from becoming inflamed and caked, and rendered unfit for future use. The lambs should daily have a feed of bran or oats, or both mixed; they should have constant access to a salt-box, filled with a mixture of salt and one-fifth wood ashes, for ten days; then change it to a mixture of, to each quart of salt add one ounce of sulphur and one ounce of pulverized copperas (oxide iron), and so change it every ten days. During protracted rains, any time after lambs are weaned, it is well to keep them housed and fed on fresh dry hay. With this care diseases may be prevented from which many lambs perish before they are one year old.

The ewes, after having been attended to by keeping on short allowance until well dried up, and the culls thereof put with the culled lot, should then be kept in thriving condition, on grass, until October first, when it will be time to arrange them for breeding.

Stock rams should be taken up about the first of July and kept about the yards and buildings, where they can be seen every day, and be sheltered from warm rains, for by getting wet in warm weather maggots are likely to breed upon the head under the horns, and on heavy fleeced rams sometimes over the body, from which they will speedily and miserably perish if the worms are not dislodged.

Stock rams should not be allowed to grow too fat in the summer, but kept in good healthy store condition.

A "FLYING TOAD," now in Washington, was captured in a seine at Cape Henry a few days since. It is of most singular conformation and of varigated hues, measuring about six inches in length, with a perfectly flat, bony back, eyes wide apart and in the centre of a circle; capacious mouth, and fins as large as wings, about the centre of the body on each side.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the livor and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to eat well, will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 325 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. mv19:151-d&F

WESTERN UNIVERSITY,

Ross and Diamond Streets,

Fall Term Opens September 2d.

There are Seven Departments—Collegiate, Scientific, Civil and Mechanical Engineering, Military Science, Commercial and Preparatory. In each, instruction is thorough and systematic. The Departments of Civil and Mechanical Engineering were organized last year, and have succeeded beyond all expectation. While the higher departments of the University are well provided for, special care is taken that Preparatory Students are supplied with the best instruction that can be employed. Past success warrants the assertion that students are afforded as good opportunities as can be had at home or abroad.

Call, for the present, from 9½ to 12 A. M., or send for a catalogue.

Abandonment.—Alderman Neelie, of Allegheny, yesterday committed David Reed to jail for abandonment, on oath of his wife Mary.

Lieutenant Henry McCoy, formerly of the Mayor's police has been appointed inside watchman at the jail, a very worthy appointment.

Assaulted.—Sharpley Anderson was committed, yesterday, by Alderman Lindsay for assault and battery on a charge preferred against him by his wife Catharine.

Truck Found.—A freight truck used for loading freight on steamboats, was found in the river at the lower end of the Monongahela wharf yesterday, and is at the Mayor's office.

Disorderly Conduct—John Souer made information before Justice Heisel, yesterday, charging Hugh Campbell with disorderly conduct. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

Obituary.—Dr. Franklin Irish, a gentleman who stood high in his profession and enjoyed the respect and esteem of all his fellow-citizens, died on Saturday last at New Castle. He will be buried today.

The work of grading, cutting, etc., for the extension of the Jamestown and Franklin Railroad, from Franklin to Oil City, and of the tunneling of the hill at Oil City, is being pushed forward vigorously.

New Management.—The Oil Creek and Allegheny River Railway has received as its managing officer Mr. John Pitcairn, Jr., formerly Superintendent of the Middle Division of the Pittsburgh and Erie Railroad.

Changed Hands.—The Erie Dispatch has passed into the hands of Messrs. George Redway, Asa B. Cook, Jr., and James R. Willard, who announce that they have rssumed the proprietorship and control of the paper.

Temperance Meeting.—A temperance meeting will be held this (Tuesday) evening at seven and a half o'clock, in the Allegheny Diamond. Rev. S. Y. Kennedy and A. N. McGonnigle, Esq., will address the meeting.

The First Frost.—We are informed through a private correspondence, that there was considerable frost in the vicinity of Tidioute, Warren county; last week, not sufficient, however, to do any injury to the fruit or crops.

Assault and Battery.—Joseph Michael, one of the parties injured during the row at the circus in Birmingham, made information before Justice Ammon, yesterday, charging Charles Carson with assault and battery. A warrant was issued.

Selling Liquor on Sunday.—The war upon violators of the Sunday liquor law is still being prosecuted with vigor. Chief Hague yesterday made information against Mrs. McCoy, for selling liquor on Sunday and for selling without license. A warrant was issued.

The Disestablishment of the Irish Church Bill.—The Rev. John Hemphill, of County Derry, Ireland, will lecture on the above subject which has recently so agitated the British Lords and Commons. The lecture will be at Lafayette Hall this evening at 8 o'clock.

Dull.—Business at the Mayor's morning court was extremely dull yesterday morning, in fact there was not a single victim in the lock-up Sunday night, and consequently no case to try Monday morning. So much for the enforcing of the Sunday liquor law.

Sad Accident.—An estimable lady of Sharon, Pa., while yet asleep, arose from her bed on Sunday night and walked out of the window, receiving in the fall such injuries as caused her death yesterday. She was a somnambulist, and frequently before had walked in her sleep.

Assault and Battery Case Settled.—The case before Alderman Butler, in which Dr. Louis Byerman, was defendant and C. Bauer, prosecutor, was heard yesterday, when the matter was amicably settled by the prosecutor paying the costs. There was a misunderstanding in regard to the charge.

Completed.—Aparatus for striking the alarm of fire on the church bell in the Twenty-Third ward (Hazelwood), has been completed and was tested yesterday. The first practical test being that of striking the hour at 9 o'clock A. M. The machinery is said to be first class, and works admirably.

Diamond Street.—The work of widening Diamond street, from the Diamond to Barker's alley, was commenced yesterday. When completed, the street will be a uniform width of forty feet, from the Diamond to liberty street, and will be quite an improvement to that portion of the city, and a decided advantage if not monopolized by market stands.

Threatened to Fix Him.—John Lofink testified before Alderman Strain yesterday that Thomas Whittaker had threatened, in an ominous way, to "fix" him. Thomas has been trying to fix him twice, on an information for selling liquor on Sunday, but failed both times. His second failure, it is alleged, caused him to make the threat. Thomas was arrested and held for a hearing.

The New Fountain.—Messrs. Forester and Alston have been awarded the contract for the stone work in the Park, between Cedar and Union avenues and Ohio street. The work is to be completed during the next month. The design of the fountain is similar to that in front of the Treasury building, Washington city. It will be a handsome affair.

Happy Termination.—Anna C. Shurrer made information before Justice Heisel yesterday, charging Joseph Bendell with seduction. She alleged that Joseph, under a promise of marriage, seduced her daughter. The accused was arrested and committed to jail, but was afterwards released, and the case amicably settled by a wedding, in which the defendant and the prosecutrix's daughter were the principals.

Temple of Honor.—At a regular meeting of Evening Star Temple of Honor, held on Friday evening, Aug. 6th, the following was unanimously resolved: That the Evening Star Temple of Honor No. 59, of Pittsburgh, unites their sympathies with those of kindred organizations, and with every movement that has for its object the advancement of Temperance Reform, and suppressing the sale of intoxicating liquors in our midst.

Personal.—Alderman Guyan M. Irwin of the Second Ward, Allegheny, has opened a neat and pleasant office at No. 35 Ohio street, below the Diamond. The citizens of the Ward made a judicious selection in securing a gentleman of such genial feeling and capabilities for the position, and we feel certain the cosy sanctum of our friend will always be a popular resort for seekers after justice.

Serenade.—We acknowledge the compliment of a very pleasing and welcome serenade, instrumental and vocal, at an early hour this morning, from the popular and highly accomplished quartette club under the leadership of Messrs. Byrely and Lutton. The music was very excellent, and the performers will find a hearty welcome whensoever they choose to repeat the delicious offering to relieve the dull routine of newspaper life.

On a Strike.—John Hartung yesterday made information, before Justice Ammon, of East Birmingham, against James Turley and Henry Roth, for surety of the peace. It appears that the parties, who are all boys, were working together in Walker & Co.'s glass house, and the defendants struck for higher wages, and because the prosecutor would not join in the strike they threatened to do him bodily harm. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the strikers.

Seeking Retirement.—The select company at Claremont or the Work House, up the Western Pennsylvania Railroad will be increased to day by several jovial spirits, who have concluded to seek rest and retirement from the activities of the city, for a brief season. Old friends will hail the arrival of Barney O'Donnel, Thomas McCombs, John Talmadge, Wm. Pryer, Brown Dawson and Samuel Mercer, at the Work House. They start on the early train this morning for their destination.

Wooden Building.—Street Commissioner McFadden made information some days since before Alderman Neeper charging Samuel Colvin with violating the city ordinance prohibiting the erection of wooden buildings. It appears that the accused constructed a frame shed or stable on Webster avenue, without permission from Council, and after a hearing in the case, yesterday, he was fined fifty dollars and costs, and he will be subject to a fine of ten dollars for each day the building is allowed to remain after date of judgment.

Market Basket in Law.—The exact value of a market basket capable of holding two bushels of potatoes or apples is about to be tested. The test assumes the shape of an information for larceny as bailee, in which Adam Hofnagle is prosecutor and Mrs. Kelly defendant. Hofnagle is a peddler, Mrs. Kelley is a purchaser. She purchased some apples of him and borrowed the basket containg them. Hofnagle alleges that when he called again, she refused to return the basket, hence the suit. A warrant was issued by Alderman McMasters for Mrs. Kelly's arrest.

Meeting of the Street Committee.—A meeting of the Committee of Councils on Streets and Sewers was held last evening in the Committee rooms, city building, for the purpose of awarding contracts for the construction of sewers and for grading and paving. The following contracts were awarded:

For the construction of a sewer on Forty-second street, to Forbie & Driscoll: Sewer on Eleventh street, to Thomas McQuade.

Grading, paving and curbing Forty-second street, to John Flinn; Grading and paving Pleasant Alley, to Forbie & Driscoll.

More than once we have called attention to the pig-pen-nuisance in front of the Penitentiary. The ground immediately in front of that institution is as much common property as it ever was, but the citizens have tacitly assented to its inclosure because it had been neatly sodded and planted with trees and generally presented an attractive appearance. But a large tri-angular portion of it has for some time past been used a pig pen, from which often arises the concentrated oder of a miniature cattle-yard. Recently, citizens, who have been in the habit of keeping pigs upon their premises within the city limits, have been obliged, by the officers of the law, to discontinue the practice, and it is scarcely to be wondered at that much dissatisfaction is felt at the existence of this nuisance at all, and especially upon common property and within sight and smell of everybody. Although the Penitentiary may not remain very long where it is now located, it is hoped that the pigs may go first.

Caught at Last.

Martin Brawdy was committed to jail yesterday by Alderman McMasters. About six weeks ago he was charged before the Alderman with having knocked a man down on Fifth avenue, and afterwards chasing his victim several squares, flourishing a knife and threatening to kill him. Martin managed to keep shady since that time and eluded the utmost vigilance of the police. Officer Blondin hearing that he was at his mother's residence in Brownstown, in haste proceeded thither and arrested him in bed. He had retired after an entertainment of chair breaking, window smashing and sundry other demonstrations of a rather exciting and exhaustive character. He will have a hearing in a few days.

Firemen's Association—Regular Quarterly Meeting.

A regular quarterly meeting of the Pittsburgh Firemen's Association, was held Monday evening, August 9, 1869, in the rooms of the association, city building.

On motion of Mr. Sims, the meeting was organized by calling Mr. Cupples to the chair.

The secretary then called the roll when ten members answered to their names.

The minutes of the preceeding meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Ruch presented the report of the Committee appointed to revise the Constitution and Bye-laws of the Association, which was, on motion, laid over until the next meeting.

The credentials of Mr. W. W. Fullerton as a delegate from the Eagle Fire Company, were read and accepted, and the gentleman admitted to a seat in the Association.

The bill of James McGaffin, Janitor, for one quarter's services, was presented and ordered to be paid.

Mr. Smith moved that when the Association adjourn it be to meet on the first Monday in September to hear the report of the Committee appointed to revise the Constitution. Adopted.

On motion, adjourned.

A FUNERAL EPISODE.

Sudden Death in Allegheny—The Funeral Arrangements Interrupted by a Coroner's Inquest—Mystery, Grief and Excitement—The Result of It All.

Yesterday afternoon a peculiar and somewhat startling episode occurred at a funeral ceremony in Allegheny. A hearse followed by a long line of carriages had drawn up in front of a dwelling, which from the outward tokens contained the remains of one whose earthly pilgrimage was over. The streets near by were lined with eager spectators, drawn together by that morbid curiosity which incites people on all such occasions. The house was filled with the friends, who had gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of the departed. Everything was in readiness for the commencement of the sacred and impressive services, when suddenly an unexpected and somewhat mysterious interrup ion interfered for the time with the progress of the exercises. The interruption was caused by the entrance of an officer, clothed with the necessary legal authority, who announced that the funeral could not proceed until an inquest had been held on the remains. Such a strange occurrence naturally caused intense excitement and required an explanation, which was given in the following manner:

About a year ago policies in three insurance companies to the amount of $27,000 were taken out on the life of Conrad Gorbach, residing at 126 Ohio street, Allegheny, whose remains yesterday were about to be interred. Conrad, so far as known, was in sound health and stout, and about forty-five years of age. He was a cotton spinner by trade, but at the time was not and has not been since, we are informed, working regularly at this employment. He was a married man, then living with his second wife, and the father of several children, some of whom were married. The policies were all taken out in Eastern companies, and were for $2,000, $5,000 and $20,000 respectively.

About a month and a half ago he was taken suddenly sick, when a physician was called in who prescribed for him. He recovered, but subsequently had one or two attacks, the last of which put an end to his life Saturday evening or Sunday morning.

In the meantime a rumor, faint at first, but growing as only a rumor or falsehood can grow, got afloat that something was wrong. The rumor seemed to be based on the allegation that as the premiums on the policies amounted to nearly two thousand dollars per year, it was impossible for the deceased to pay the same from his limited earnings, from which it was argued that some person interested had advanced the amount and eventually aided in gettiug him out of the way. In fact it was asserted that Conrad never had paid the money himself, an acquaintance and one of the supposed interested party having given his check for the greater part of the amount.

Another point alleged was that the deceased had been visited by the Insurance agent a few days subsequent to his death, when he stated he knew nothing about any insurance outside the $2,000 policy; that the others if obtained at all, were secured by some surreptitious means, or by a substitution of some other person for him.

Such were the many rumors which added to a hundred others of less foundation even, gained such headway that at the instance of the Insurance agent it is said an examining physician was brought on from the east, to investigate the condition of the man. This physician arrived in the city on Saturday evening and intended proceeding with his work yesterday, which, however, was rendered unnecessary by the sudden demise of the man.

The affair by this time had gained such a notoriety in the neighborhood that the agents of the several companies, in which the deceased had been insured, thought the interests of the family as well as their own demanded that a full investigation be made. This decision was arrived at, yesterday, and immediately they made preparations for an inquest.

The funeral had been arranged to come off at two o'clock, and it was expected that the whole matter could be settled in a few minutes. but unfortunately they were so long in deciding that the ceremonies had to be interrupted as stated.

Alderman Donaldson, upon being notified, repaired to the house and in a short time empannelled a jury, when the inquest was proceeded with—the friends and acquaintances in the meantime smothering their grief, rendered thus doubly crushing by the unusual proceedings.

THE INQUEST.

The jury, after being sworn, examined the body which was enclosed in a rosewood coffin in the room, and already exhibited evidences that the work of decomposition had far advanced. The following testimony was then elicited:

Dr. John Hamilton, sworn—I was called to attend deceased about the 22d of June, 1869, when he appeared in a dying condition. He had great difficulty in respiration, and upon examination I found he had a lung trouble, such as we call asthma or capillary bronchitis. Hardly thought he would live then, but gave him something and he got better. In the course of eight or ten days he was able to come down to my office on Ohio street. About the 22d day of July I was again called to see him, and found him suffering from another attack of the same disease. He got better that time. The next time I was called to see him was on the 1st of August, when I found him with the same old trouble, but not so bad as at first. I saw him again the next day, when he was better. I saw him again last Saturday morning. He was eating his breakfast, breathed very freely, and said he felt better. He called my attention to what he was spitting up. It was streaked a little with blood, but I told him not to be alarmed, that such a thing often occured in cases of this kind. I had examined him for symptoms of consumption, but found no symptoms of tubercular trouble. He had asthma, but from his symptoms I thought he had some other obscure disease, which I could not detect. I could not tell whether it was organic or not. He had swelling in the knees, indicating the presence of some other disease. As near as I could tell he died of spasmodic asthma. I was not present at the time of his death. I saw him about ten o'clock Saturday morning, when he appeared to be breathing well and had no alarming symptoms.

Chas. Pfaff, sworn.—The deceased was my father-in-law. I was present fifteen minutes before and a few minutes after his death. When I left him a member of his lodge was with him, and Mrs. Gorbach was sleeping.

Nicholas Dittner, sworn.—Was present at the time of the death of the deceased. No one else was with him. He died very quietly while sitting on the sofa with his head resting between his hands. I called Mrs. Gorbach and told her he was either dead or dying. She made no answer, but commenced crying and went down stairs to call her son-in-law. He died about one o'clock. I have known him about one year, and he was healthy when I first knew him. I don't know what he worked at.

THE VERDICT.

The testimony closed here and the jury were allowed to deliberate for a few minutes, when they returned a verdict that "The deceased, Conrad Gorbach, came to his death August 8, 1869, from spasmodic asthma or capillary bronchitis."

While the inquest was being held, Allegheny Tribe, Independent Order of Red Men, of which deceased was a member, came marching up in full regalia, headed by a brass band. The crowd of spectaors by this time had increased to such an extent that the street was almost blockaded, and as rumors of the proceedings inside were whispered around the excitement became intense. The inquest was proceeded with as rapidly as possible, and in about half an hour it was concluded, when the jury retired, glad to have finished their disagreeable duty. As they vacated the room the family of the deceased entering, gathered around the bier, and as if unable to longer control their feeling, manifested their intense grief in passionate sobs and tears—a scene, which in connection with the peculiar events just transpired, seemed affecting and touching in the extreme, and made an ineffaceable impress upon the memory of every witness.

INTERNATIONAL ASSEMBLY.

Journeymen Tailors in Convention.

An international convention of representatives from the various Journeymen Tailors' Unions in the United States and Canada, assembled in Saenger Hall, corner of Seventh avenue and Grant street, this city, Monday morning. The permanent President being absent, the meeting was organized by electing Mr. Geo. Humphreys President pro tem., and appointing Mr. Hougendabler Secretary, and Mr. McCarthy Treasurer.

The roll of delegates was then called, and a Committee on Credentials appointed.

The Committee subsequently reported the credentials all correct.

Mr. Bitiss[illegible], of New York, reported a strike in progress among the shop tailors of that city and vicinity, in which 5,000 men are engaged. He hoped that the delegates assembled would give an expression of their sympathy with the strikers and asked that he be authorized to send the following dispatch to the great demonstration to be made in front of City Hall, at two o'clock this afternoon: "Brothers, continue the struggle. The sympathy of the delegates of the International Union is with you. Be firm, then, and a glorious victory will be yours." The suggestion was adopted.

After the transaction of some other business, the Convention adjourned until two o'clock P. M.

The delegates reassembled pursuant to adjournment at two o'clock, the President pro tem in the chair.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

The credentials of delegates from the Clotning Cutters, Union, of New York, were presented and read.

Mr. Mouslard moved that the delegates be admitted as members of the convention.

Mr. McCall moved to amend by referring the matter of their admission to the several local unions, and that in the meantime the delegates be admitted to seats in the convention.

The motion was discussed at considerable length and in a very warm manner, and was finally adopted as amended.

The delegates who were in waiting were then, on motion, notified of the action of the Convention and invited to seats.

After the transaction of some unimportant business the Convention adjourned to meet at nine o'clock this morning.

Another Big Oil Strike.

By a private dispatch from J. B. Mechling, Esq., one of the leading and most responsible atterneys of Tionesta, Pa., we learn that on Saturday evening a new well was struck on the Jamieson flats, and on Sunday pumped at the rate of one hundred barrels per day. This is the second important well obtained on that farm, and creates considerable excitement in oil circles. The Jamieson farm is about one mile above Tionesta on the opposite bank of the river. It is adjoined by the large farm owned by Pittsburgh GAZETTE proprietors, and on which several wells are about to be bored. This new territory attracts much attention, and is thought to be equal to any of the producing districts of the State. Oil is obtained in large and constant supply at a depth varying from one hundred and fifty to two hundred and fifty feet, while in other localities the operator must go down a much greater distance, involving a far heavier expense. It is natural that we should be glad to note all the new developments in this region which so long remained neglected. A few years ago better wells in the vicinity of Tionesta, and on the GAZETTE farm, were abandoned, on account of the low price of oil, than are now being operated in a very profitable manner on other portions of the belt, and this fact lends greater attraction to the district. Several new wells are going down on the Jamieson flats, while operations on others have been commenced on the Tionesta side of the river.

A Wool Transaction.

Yesterday morning a lot of wool arrived at the Allegheny station, consigned to Mr. Robert Hunter, of this city. A short time afterwards a man giving his name as Logan called at the depot, stated he had bought the wool from Hunter and wished to take it away to his establishment in the Allegheny Diamond. The wool accordingly was delivered to him, when he signed the receipt and disappeared. Subsequently Hunter called for the wool, and was surprised to learn of the transaction, which he at once pronounced a fraud. He immediately come before Alderman McMasters and made information against Logan for larceny. Officer Blondin was entrusted with the case and subsequently discovered the wool, eight packages in all, had been sold to a firm on Liberty street, who had paid $450 cash to Logan for it. Immediately upon receipt of the money the seller had moved off, and could not be traced. The officers are on the lookout for the sharper, with, however, small prospect of securing him.

Sabbath Disturbances.

John N. McGee made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday against Geo. Lang for selling liquor on Sunday. Lang is proprietor of a saloon in Pleasant Valley, Second Ward, Allegheny, and it is alleged that the establishment is kept open every Sunday, and that parties are drinking there all day long, and that frequent raids are made on the property in the vicinity, fruit trees torn down, fences broken, and other depredations committed by the frequenters of the saloon. McGee is a police officer, and investigated the case on Sunday with the result as stated. The accused was arrested and gave bail for a hearing. It is but proper to sate that this was the only complaint which has been made against the saloon and the proprietor denies the charge.

Liver Complaint.

In this disease there is a peculiar cachetic condition of the blood which gives rise to a long train of diversified symptoms.

The countenance becomes sallow, the eyes have a yellowish tinge, the whole skin becomes changed in color and appearance, and not unfrequently terminate in a jaundiced cosdition of all the excretions, but especially the urine.

Dyspepsia soon sets in, sometimes cough, similating Consumption. Dropsy with its usual symptoms of swelling of feet and legs—Asthmatic difficulties, Costiveness, Piles, &c. These many times so far change the symptoms in every other respect as to make it difficult for the physician to arrive at the true nature of the case by the pulse and tongue alone.

A mere ocular inspection of the urine in this disease, however, is nearly always sufficient to determine the nature of the case, and many times to give a very correct opinion of the extent of the mischief also.

The melancholy which is so apt to take place in Liver complaint has often led to erroneous treatment, and the worst of consequences have thus befallen the patient.

We have cured many cases of melancholy amounting even to "derangement of the mind," when the cause was plainly attributable to Liver Complaint alone.

In this disease, as in many others, the urine is so well marked as to denote the character of the disorder long before it is manifested by any other symptom or outward sign.

We have had the examination and treatment of so many cases of this disease and its complications that we have learned the kind of medicines to be used in each particular case not only—but feel satisfied that they can be treated more successfully without, than with, any mercurial preparation whateyer.

In fact, our success in this affection numbers thousands of cases, and reliable cures have been made in hundreds of instances, after nearly the last vestige of hope had been exhausted.

We would not hold out any inducements to hopeless cases, however, but would just say that what has been so many times done, we would hope to do again.

And if any person in whose hands this periodical may fall, are similating a hopeless case, let them still have courage and try.

Should we by this article be the means of thus relieving one more subject of sickly lingering Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia or Dropsy, we will feel amply rewarded for the publication of this book.

Comfortable Boots, Shoes and Gaiters, and Where to Purchase.

Neat fitting and comfortable boots, shoes and gaiters are luxuries which cannot be overestimated, more especially since they are so difficult to be obtained in these days of machine sewing and pasting. Those of our readers who can appreciate pedal comforts need hardly be informed that Messrs. Alpert & Kohler, the well known and popular boot and shoe dealers and manufacturers, No. 38 Market street, have attained enviable reputation in their line of business, and one that is certainly warranted by the care and skillful workmanship of every article which leaves their establishment, whether ready made or manufactured to order. They make a specialty of boots, shoes and gaiters for those persons troubled with corns, bunions, enlarged points, or any other distressing deformities of the feet, warranting on every occasion to furnish an article that will prove comfortable and satisfactory in wearing. The firm cut entirely on the scientific mode invented by Mr. Alpert, of the firm, who formerly did business in Allegheny. We know whereof we speak in commending this house in our heartiest terms to readers as eminently worthy public patronage and confidence. All they desire is a fair trial and a person who appreciates neat fitting and comfortable boots and shoes, will, after having the first order filled, forever after prove a customer to the firm. Remember the place No. 38 Market street.

Revenue Receipts.

Collector T. W. Davis, if he continues to "pull up" in receipts as he has done since his appointment to office, will show at the expiration of his term a record which will speak volumes in his favor as a faithful and efficient gatherer of Governmental duties and taxes. Here are the collections for July, compiled from his account books, which show a healthy increase when compared with the corresponding month of last year:

Taxes from Spirits		$24,918.55
" " Tobacco		78,196.33

Conflict of Jurisdiction.

A few days ago information was made by Chief Hague before the Mayor, charging Mary Joice with selling liquor on Sunday, and the action being a civil one for the purpose of recovering the penalty of fifty dollars, a summons was issued and served and yesterday morning fixed as the time for the hearing. During the time intervening between the date of the information and the hearing, proceedings of a similar nature for the same offence were instituted before Alderman Lynch, who, after a hearing, gave judgment in the usual form for the penalty, and when the case was called for a hearing before the Mayor a transcript from the Alderman's docket was presented and the plea of former conviction entered. The case was held over for further consideration, and in the meantime an information charging Mrs. Joice with selling liquor without licenee was made, upon which she was held for a hearing.

The Superiority of the Boulevard pavement over all other styles in use is daily becoming more apparent to the public, and we are not surprised that the enterprising proprietors of the patent for this section, Messrs. R. M. McCowan & Co. No. 65 Ohio street, Allegheny, have as much as they can attend to in supplying orders. The Boulevard is solid, clean and pretty and for walks or pavements much more durable than bricks or even flag stones, for when once properly laid it never wears out. It is comparatively cheap and when it is fully appreciated by the public we can confidently look for a complete revolution in paving. Orders either for city or country left with Messrs. McCowan & Co. will receive prompt attention.

Silks at Auction To-Day.

At the Administrator's sale, 20 St. Cla street, a large and varied assortment silks will be offered this day at 9½ A. and 2 P. M. The house is crowded overflowing each day and evening. The crowd to-day with the new attraction will no doubt be immense. We saw some splendid shawls sold yesterday very cheap, and many other articles are much lower, we think, than they cost originally.

The sale of dry goods generally will be continued in the evening at half past 7.

All kinds of dress goods sold daily at the old establishment, 59 Market street, at auction prices. Now is the time to secure bargains, for all know who attend the sales, that the goods are disappearing rapidly.

The language of nature and experience demonstrates that whoever would enjoy the pleasures of food, the beauties of landscape, the joys of companionship, the riches of literature, or the honors of station and renown, must preserve their health. The effect of foul, injurious food, entering the stomach, is to derange the digestive organs and produce headache, loss of appetite, unrefreshing sleep, low spirits, feverish barnings, etc., which are the symptoms of that horrid disease, Dyspepsia, which assumes a thousand shapes, and points toward a miserable life and premature decay. PLANTATION BITTERS will prevent, overcome and counteract all of these effects. They act with unerring power, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage.
